

THE FIFIELD WILL WATER TANK FOR KEITH THEATRE SENTENCED TO JAIL

Was Allowed by Judge McIntyre in Probate Court Today

Mr. Amos F. Hill and Mrs. Dora Chase Were Appointed Administrators of the Will CAMBRIDGE, Feb. 23.—A threatened contest over the will of former Mayor George W. Fifield, who left made public. James F. Owens, appeared for Miss Abby M. Fifield, Louis H. Kleski for the will, McIntyre & Wilson for Mrs. Dora Chase and Fannie S. Wilson. Mr. Amos F. Hill and Mrs. Dora Chase were appointed administrators.

THE TANK BEING UNLOADED AT THE THEATRE

A very large pressure tank which most people thought was a huge boiler was delivered in front of the Keith theatre on Bridge street this morning by the Stanley teamsters. It is a water tank to be used in connection with the sprinkler system that is being installed in the Keith theatre. It is 30 feet long and 7 feet 9 inches in diameter. Its capacity being 6000 gallons. The tank itself weighs six tons and a half, and the water it will contain when filled will weigh 12 tons. The tank will be set in a corner 70 feet above the stage and will be supported by great metal columns. It will be hoisted to its place by Knighs & Sons, and will be connected with a four-inch water main and automatic fire alarm sungs, the object being to provide sufficient pressure to drench the stage in case of fire and to provide also sufficient water for the sprinkler system all over the theatre. The work of completing the interior is rapidly progressing and already it can be seen that when finished this theatre will be one of the prettiest in New England. Mr. William McKenny is general supervisor of the work for Mr. Keith and is an expert upon everything in theatrical construction.

Frederick Mencini Charged With Carrying Loaded Pistol

Frederick Mencini, who appeared in court Monday morning charged with drunkenness and carrying a loaded pistol, was placed on trial. He was represented by James Stuart Murphy and changed his plea from that of not guilty to guilty. Mr. Murphy informing the court that the man was drunk at the time and did not realize what he was doing. J. Joseph O'Connor appeared upon the court the seriousness of the offense, especially when the man was drunk. Patrolman John J. Sullivan testified that the man got drunk last Saturday afternoon and during the early part of the evening threatened to shoot a number of people. He found Mencini in Lakeview avenue, placed him under arrest and upon searching the man found a dangerous looking revolver. Mencini was found guilty and sentenced to four months in jail. He appealed and was held under $400 for the superior court.

Serious Offense
John McGaunn was charged with attempting to break and enter the building of Henry A. Lemaitre with intent to commit larceny therefrom and in so doing broke a pane of glass. McGaunn, who is but 21 years of age, is now on probation from the superior court on a case of breaking and entering, but he denied that he was guilty. At the request of the government the case was continued till Saturday, the defendant being held under $500 for his appearance at that time.

Charged With Larceny
Angelina Sansousier, alias Jennie Simpson, was charged with the larceny of a bracelet, pair of shoes, shirt waists, coat, sweater, underclothes and chain, all of the value of $34.50, the property of Lavina B. Foster. She entered a plea of not guilty, but at the request of the government the case was continued till Saturday, the defendant being held under $500 for his appearance at that time.

Sent Back to Farm
Michael J. Reynolds, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm. Violated City Ordinance
George A. Blake and Oscar F. French were charged with violating a city ordinance by not having three bells attached to their sleighs or the harness of the horse drawing the sleigh. Blake was held up in Suffolk street and it was while French was passing through Broadway that it was found there were no bells on the sleigh. Both men entered pleas of guilty and a fine of $1 was imposed in each case. Supt. Welch informed the court that he did not wish to press the cases, but brought the men into court in order to educate others what they should do. It was stated that if a horse, with no bells attached to its harness, ran away the people in the street would not have sufficient warning to escape being run down.

The woman is said to have been subject to fainting periods, and it is believed that she was stricken while trying to light the gas. She was married, but not living with her husband, who the police said was Edward King, 100 Morgan street, Haverhill, Mass.

ELECTION CONTEST DISPOSED OF BY COURT AT DUNDALK

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—The election contest in the north division of Louth was disposed of today by the court at Dundalk which declared the election void and awarded Timothy Healy costs in his prosecution of charges of corrupt and illegal practices. The charge of general intimidation was found not to have been established and on this point each party was condemned to pay his own costs. The action was brought by Mr. Healy, who was ousted from the seat which he had held for 18 years, by Richard Hazelton, a Redmonite. In the case Hazelton's attorneys had consented to have the election declared void without offering a defense, but Healy insisted on introducing all the evidence which included that in support of charges of bribery and the court decided to hear it. A new election will be necessary.

NO CHOICE FOR SENATOR
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 23.—There was no choice for United States senator on the 32nd joint ballot today. Sheehan received 55 votes, Depew 50, Sheppard 15, and Littleton 3, with 78 necessary for election.

SENT BACK TO MAINE

Man Was Before Judge Hadley on Vagrancy Charge

Alphonse F. Nichols, a respectable looking man of about 60 years of age, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with being a vagrant, and although he entered a plea of not guilty, after Captain Atkinson of the police department had given testimony it looked as though the defendant was going to receive a sentence to the state farm, the usual sentence imposed upon vagrants. Nichols, however, told a story which appealed to the judge and, feeling that the man might be telling the truth, the court decided to look into the matter, and as a result Judge Frederic A. Fisher was called into court and recognized the defendant as a one-time prosperous tailor in Brunswick, Me. of Manslaughter

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—The confession of William R. Remington that he shot Max Sorokin in the latter's store in this city on July 31 last, while he was under the influence of a drug was believed by a jury in the superior court which returned a verdict of manslaughter today. Remington told the authorities at the state hospital at Tewksbury that he entered Sorokin's store with the idea of trying to sell the latter a revolver. Remington said he had been using morphine and cocaine freely and was very nervous. Sorokin screamed when he saw the revolver and Remington said he fired twice, not knowing what he was doing. Remington will be sentenced later.

THE CITY COUNCIL
Both Branches to Meet Tonight

Both branches of the city council will meet tonight. The meeting of the aldermen will be an adjourned meeting, while the meeting of the common council is a special meeting. The aldermen are meeting tonight for the purpose of joint convention, but if the wisecracks at city hall are to be credited with anything, little good political foresight, there will be no joint convention. The republicans in the lower board have two men to save, the city clerk and the city treasurer, and they are not just ready to take the chance. For Lower Telephone Rates
Councilman Henry Achin, Jr., at the special meeting of the common council tonight will introduce an order for lower telephone rates. A reduction in telephone expenses would surely increase the number of telephone subscribers. The order is as follows:
Order for appointment of joint special committee on telephone rates discount.

Ordered, if the board of aldermen concur, that a joint special committee, consisting of two members of the common council, two members of the board of aldermen and his honor, the mayor, be appointed to confer with officials of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company relative to allowing Lowell telephone subscribers a reduction in rates or a certain discount for prompt payment, under the same plan as is in operation by the Lowell Gas Light company and Lowell Electric Light company.

WASHINGTON'S DAY

Was Pretty Generally Observed in This City

Yesterday a grateful country observed the anniversary of the birth of its father, George Washington, the one man credited with never having told a lie, and the greatest hero from the moral, earnest and patriotic standpoint, ever born. Other countries have had their kings, but only one country had its George Washington and he was worth all the kings that ever happened.

The observance of the day was more or less general in Lowell, in churches, clubs and other places, but there was nothing in the way of observance that would be called elaborate.

The Elks Entertained

The hospitality of the Elks was never better demonstrated than it was last their commodious quarters in Middle street. There were about 400 present during the evening, what was enjoyed, there was an informal entertainment program carried out by local talent and players at the different theatres, refreshments were served and the affair proved to be a success in every particular.

The interior was beautifully as well as artistically decorated with the national colors, flags and greenery. The corridor was also decorated in an appropriate manner.

What was started shortly after 8 o'clock and continued till 10 o'clock, when the entertainment program was opened. Pretty souvenirs were presented to each of the participants in the whilst while the winners received beautiful prizes.

The following were the prize winners: Ladies, first, Miss Lena Lampleneau, 64 points; second, Miss Ella M. Burit, 55 points; consolation, Mrs. F. E. Lamson, 14 points.
Gentlemen, first, Charles J. McMahon, 57 points; second, James Gookin, 51 points; consolation, D. J. Hackett, 19 points.

The entertainment program, opened with a selection by Hathaway's orchestra, Prof. Arthur J. Martel, leader, Donald Meek of the Donald Meek Stock Co. gave an excellent recitation of "The Life Boat Crew" in his own inimitable way, and James E. Donnelly gave imitations of Harry Lauder. Edward P. Shea contributed songs and Severin De Deyn gave recitations and imitations. Songs were sung by John A. Ketcher and Joseph H. Donohoe gave several readings.

At 11 o'clock the Elks' toast was given by Exalted Ruler John P. Farley. The toast was given with the lights turned low and proved to be a very impressive feature of the occasion. The success of the affair was due to the untiring and zealous work of the following committee of arrangements: Frank A. Mallory, chairman; Walter E. Gayette, secretary; John P. Farley, John H. Cull, Thomas A. Golden, Cornelius Collins, Andrew A. Gray, Samuel A. Pickering, Harry Pitts, Donald Meek, William W. Murphy, Joseph Mullin, Charles F. Young, Edward P. Hathaway, James E. Donnelly, Dr. T. F. Carroll, Arthur J. Martel, George W. Moon.

St. John's Church
The Parish Aid society of St. John's church held a bag social in the parish rooms last night. The affair took the form of a Washington party, and the rooms were prettily decorated with flags and statuettes of the "Father of His Country." The ladies of the society appeared in colonial costumes. Every person who entered the rooms presented a bag, with coin of the realm in it, and each one gave as much as he saw fit to do.

The following miscellaneous program was given: Piano solo, Miss Jessie Regan; tableau, Roscoe Brannan and Dortha Whiteley; duet, "Dost Thou Love Me, Sister Ruth?" Edward Moore and Martha Wilson; song, "Gather Round," Miss Helen Smith; duet, "Jack and Jill," Robert and Alexina Burns; song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Charles Ingalls. The sketch, in costume, "How the Story Grew," was delightfully given by Mrs. Charles Ingalls, Mrs. Thomas Riley, Mrs. K. J. Connell, Mrs. H. L. Whiteley, Mrs. J. Horwich, Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mrs. G. E. Edwards and Mrs. Fred Brannan. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunklee, Mrs. Pascal and Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. George Parsons, Mrs. Willis S. Hall, Mrs. Jessop and Mrs. W. E. Robins poured.

The Boys' Brigade
The Boys' Brigade of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave a Washington's birthday entertainment last night in the vestry of the church, which was attended by a good sized audience. Exhibition drills by squads of the brigade provided one of the pleasing features of the evening's program. The first squad was under the command of Capt. Herbert H. Taylor and three other squads under Corporal Ernest Hook, Carlos Taft and Raymond E. Fox, also did exceptionally good work. Songs by Master Emil Hartford, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss Eva Henderson, was an added feature, and an exhibition drill of a squad from Company G, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., under Sergeant Hotchkiss.

The members of the brigade presented a little sketch, entitled "An Awkward Squad." The characters and those who portrayed them were: "Lieut. Mustard," Irving Snyder; "Sergeant Drill," William Mochrie; "Cyranus Greene of Jayville," Albert Booth; "Hans Anhauser, Pioneer Wurtzburger Hoffmann, Jr.," Herbert Taylor; "Percy Harold Hooper Hooper," Rothwell Smith; "Michael J. O'Shaughnessy," Charles Barton; "Doller," Frank Bacheller.

The playlet was well rendered and merited much applause. Herbert Taylor is captain of the brigade, William Mochrie first lieutenant, and Irving Snyder second lieutenant. Sergeant Cornelius Barnes of G company, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., is drill master of the brigade.

The Washington Club
As usual the Washington club celebrated at its quarters on Prescott street last night by a banquet, followed by addresses by a number of speakers, including James J. Kervin, John C. Burke, Daniel J. Donahue and Joseph Smith, all of whom dwell upon the personal character, the civil and military achievements of Washington. The set address of the evening was by Mr. Smith, who dwelt at length upon the career of Washington and the difficulties he had to overcome. The rooms were appropriately decorated, and the exercises, enlivened by the music of the Middlesex orchestra.

The People's Club
A large audience gathered at the People's club rooms in the Rineels building last night. Solon W. Stevens gave the address, taking George Washington as his topic. Mr. Stevens delivered a most scholarly and entertaining address. He indicated the steps in the life of Washington, spoke of his military genius and dwelt enthusiastically upon his career as a statesman. Patriotic songs were sung by Mrs. C. M. Williams, who delighted her audience. Mr. Stevens played her accompaniments.

A Delightful Affair
At least 150 people attended the annual social held last night in the old Sacred Heart school hall, under the auspices of the Holy Angels sodality of that parish. The affair proved even more enjoyable than those of other years, and the evening was a delightful one in every particular. Besides an informal musical and literary program there were numerous games for the young women.

The program included the following numbers:
Opening chorus, by the sodality; "Holy Mary," reading, "An Inquiry," Miss Nellie Lynch; solo, "You'll Come Back to Erin Some Day," Miss Irene Harkins; reading, "George Washington Jones," Miss Ellen Mahan; solo, "Just a Face in the Firelight," Miss Lucy Sharkey; reading, "Sister's Beau," Miss Katherine Kenney.

A GREAT TIME
ENJOYED BY THE EMPLOYEES OF FRIEND BROTHERS

The employees of the Friend Brothers from Lynn and Lowell with their wives and lady friends were the guests of the Melrose employees at the Melrose city hall last night. Two special cars conveyed the party from Lowell.

Motormen Leahy and Hayes with Conductor Fanning and Sanger, had charge of the cars. The car trips both ways were enjoyed by all as could be seen by the enthusiastic merry making. A continuous lunch was served. Whist, dancing, checkers and entertainment consisting of instrumental and vocal solos were enjoyed.

The hit of the evening was the chorus sung by the Lowell men.

JIMMY GARDNER
FOUGHT A DRAW WITH JACK DILLON

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 23.—Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, Mass., and Jack Dillon of this city fought on fast rounds to a draw here last night. They weighed in at 164 pounds yesterday afternoon.

COL. ROOSEVELT Is Able to Handle Intruders

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's facility in handling intruders and his presence of mind in emergencies were put to the test twice yesterday at the big meeting in the First Regiment armory, and in each instance he averted with the dexterity that brought applause from his audience what at first looked like embarrassing situations.

In his address at this meeting which was designed primarily as a word of counsel for the foreign born citizens of Chicago, the former president took occasion to announce himself as an advocate of woman suffrage. "This perhaps was in compliment to Miss Jane Addams, who sat beside him on the rostrum, but the language the colonel used was unequivocal."

"Personally," he declared, "I am in favor of giving the franchise to all citizens, irrespective of sex."

The adventure with the stranger came just as he closed his address on "Good Citizenship."

Colonel Roosevelt had taken his seat and just arisen to make an announcement, when a queer looking individual, with a flowing beard, arose from one of the front seats and walked upon the platform where the speakers were seated.

"Are you the colonel?" he demanded, extending his hand and reaching for Colonel Roosevelt. "I'm an old soldier from Wisconsin. Just stop the program for a minute, will you? I want to say a word or two to this audience."

Colonel Roosevelt looked the man over for a second and then, deciding that he was harmless, smiled.

"No, no," he said, "not now. Just sit down here a minute," and he made room for the intruder beside him.

The man took the seat offered him. Mr. McCormick made his announcement and the audience sang a verse of a patriotic song. Then, while the audience was sitting down, the colonel got the stranger quietly off the platform. The other incident occurred while he was in the middle of his address. He had just begun the sentence, "We must stand up boldly," when the chair on which one of the reporters was seated suddenly collapsed under him. The audience burst into a roar of laughter, in which Colonel Roosevelt joined. After the reporter had readjusted himself, the colonel observed amid renewed laughter.

"I said stand up boldly, and not sit down," and went on with his talk.

HERE'S A SHAMPOO WORTH TRYING

"Much depends on what you use when shampooing," says Mae Martyn, in the Los Angeles Times. "Great injury is often done the hair and scalp by employing harmful mixtures for this purpose, while a simple thing like canthrox almost works wonders in cleansing the hair and scalp."

"After a canthrox shampoo the scalp is soft and pliant and the hair will have regained its original lustre and fluffiness and is easier to do up."

"Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water and shampoo the head well with this, then rinse thoroughly and dry. You will be agreeably surprised at the result."

"While canthrox is not expensive, you should be careful to get an original package."

BOWLING GAMES

Some Lively Contests on the Alleys

The game between the Druggists and the Producers in the Moody Bridge league series last night proved to be a close and exciting contest. The Druggists won two of the three points and captured the total by a margin of ten pins. Mailoux of the winning team was high man.

The Iroquois had little or no trouble in putting it all over the El Toros in the game in the Minor league last night. The Indians were in excellent condition and put up a great game despite the fact that one of the regular members of the team was missing. Fielding and Mahan of the winning aggregation went over the 300 mark.

There were two games played in the Manufacturers league. The one between the Boot and Appleton teams proved to be a good one and also that luck as well as science assists the Boot team in holding on to the leadership in the league. Despite the fact that the Boot team lost the pinfall by nine pins it won two of the three points. In the game between the Bigelows and Hamiltons the latter team won all three points. The scores:

HOGAN'S BOUT

He is Master of "Knock-out" Brown

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—"One Round" Hogan of California gained the popular decision over "Knockout" Brown of New York in a 10-round bout at the Madison Athletic club here last night.

Brown failed to make the showing he did against Ad Wolgast in Philadelphia recently. It was a hard fight but Hogan got to Brown as no other fighter has been able to do. When "Knockout" missed, Hogan mixed with him and met the former at every point. The California outpointed, outboxed and out fought the hardy New York lightweight and the big house generally voted the laurels to Hogan when the last going had sounded.

Hogan came near living up to the reputation which his fighting name implies. With a right and left to the head in the first he sent Brown staggering into a neutral corner. It was a new experience to Brown and he clinched and covered carefully to the end of the round.

Three rounds belonged to Brown, the second, fourth and fifth.

The third and sixth were even breaks and to Hogan went the rest.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—The Duma last night by a vote of 203 to 153 declined to express an opinion for or against the bill providing for the abolition of the Jewish pale, which was introduced last summer, but referred the bill to the committee on the inviolability of person, to make a report.

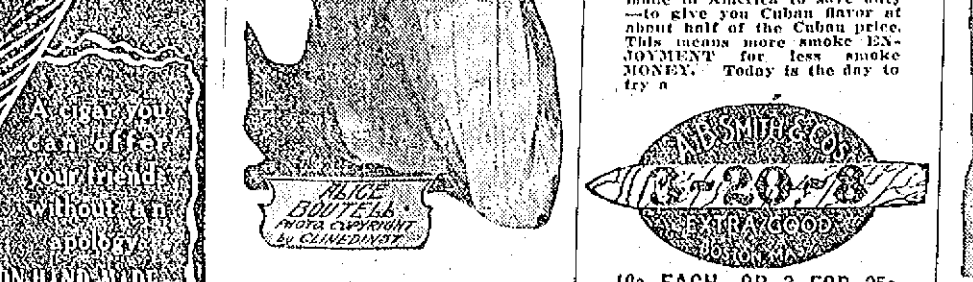

The bill, which favors giving to Jews the right of unrestricted residence in Russia, originally was supported by 165 members of the opposition and Center. # GEO. ROBERTSON CHICKEN CLUB

Not a Bargain Counter Had Their Big Bowling Game Yesterday

George H. Robertson takes exception to the report quoting Jesse Froehlich, managing director of the Benz concern, to the effect that it has not been the policy of the Benz company to pay the drivers of its racing cars any salaries and that their only compensation has been the prize money they won. Robertson won the Vanderbilt cup and the Fairmount Park races in 1908 and the Lowell and Fairmount Park races in 1909, but has retired from racing to become the president of the Auto Supply Company.

"Personally, I do not believe that a racing driver who drives without any compensation, except prize money he may win, is worth having as a pilot of racing cars," says Robertson. "I have always insisted on a regular fee for driving cars in races and if I won any prize money, I was to get that in addition to the money I received for competing. It might be all right to let some ambitious youngster handle a car in an unimportant race because he was willing to drive without a salary, but in big races I do not think many big concerns are likely to follow this plan."

What sort of policy would it be for an automobile manufacturing concern to spend from $15,000 to $25,000 constructing a high class racing car, spending thousands in entering it in races and then sacrificing the entire investment simply because they can get a driver, reputation doubtful, for little or no money to handle it against drivers who are paid here and there, to take a chance here and there. Cheap quality may be all right in other things, but not in automobile racing. The large spender obtains the most results.

"While it is a fact that I did not get any money from the Benz company while preparing for the Vanderbilt cup race last fall, in which I did not race because of my accident, I did have a contract by which I was to be paid for driving Benz cars in the Vanderbilt, Fairmount Park and Grand Prix races. In addition to this, I was paid a salary for driving Benz cars in the races and time trials on the Florida beach last winter."

"Anyone who knows me personally, will vouch for me when I say that I never was a driver who could be engaged at bargain counter prices. I was possibly the highest paid driver in this country and as such tried to give full value for the money. I drove as well as I could, was always on the level and tried to be square with everyone. As for my driving again, will say that I have charge of a fine business now and that I will devote my entire time to this and nothing else."

JAPANESE TREATY

Met With Strong Opposition in the U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—An effort was made to carry through the senate yesterday the new treaty with Japan on the subject of commerce and navigation, but it met with stubborn resistance from a wholly unexpected quarter. Senator Hale said that the treaty represented a voluntary surrender by the administration of a commercial advantage which this country has a right to enjoy for another year over the nations of Europe with whom Japan is negotiating new commercial relations.

Senator Lodge, who reported the treaty from the senate committee on foreign relations which agreed to report it after its provisions had been explained by Secretary of State Knox, was unable to satisfy the objectors.

Considerable feeling was exhibited by Mr. Lodge in answering the Maine senator's criticisms. It had been expected that there might be some opposition from Pacific coast senators, because of the elimination from the new treaty of all reference to the immigration of laborers, as covered by the existing treaty of 1891, which the new convention is intended to supersede. The western senators, however, offered no arguments against ratification beyond demanding time in which to obtain an understanding of its provisions.

An executive session of the senate was convened shortly after 5 o'clock last night to consider the new treaty.

Several senators were immediately curious to know why there was such haste to have the treaty ratified. Although this reason was not stated, the general belief was that the administration desired action before western states had time to memorialize their representatives to oppose it should the elimination of the immigration clause be deemed obnoxious to the interests of the Pacific slope. Senator Lodge said that the administration desired prompt ratification as an additional proof of the cordiality of this government toward Japan.

The treaty might have slipped through had it not been for Mr. Hale. Mr. Lodge had made a speech asserting that there was no danger of objectionable immigration under the treaty, because that question would be taken care of by laws and police regulations, and for the additional reason that Japan through diplomatic channels had assured this government of her intention to exercise the most rigid control of passports. At this point, however, Mr. Hale interposed objections to ratification.

No fault was expressed by the Maine senator with the immigration feature, but he charged that it involved reciprocity with Japan as objectionable to orthodox protectionists as that contemplated in the reciprocity agreement with Canada.

On every side senators who had been disposed to accept without question the report of the committee on foreign relations pressed him for an explanation.

Attention was directed by Mr. Hale to the absence from the new treaty of the protocol of the treaty of 1891 in respect to the Japanese tariff to be applicable to the United States. Under that protocol the present statutory tariff with Japan would be continued until July 17, 1912, while, if the new treaty were approved, a new and higher tariff would go into effect at once.

Replying to this suggestion, Mr. Lodge said that treaties which Japan has with all countries other than the United States expire within a very short time and that in negotiating new treaties that government has incorporated therein the "friendly nation" clause. He said further that Japan is about to undertake a new fiscal plan and to adopt a new general tariff law, but that she would be compelled to postpone her operation of these needed reforms for another year unless the United States showed its friendship by permitting the abrogation of the treaty with this country at the same time that treaties with other countries expired. He said that the effect of this refusal would be great loss of revenue to Japan, but of comparatively small benefit to the United States. Some sharp passages are said to have occurred between Messrs. Lodge and Hale, but the debates in executive sessions are never taken down.

After a long debate, it was realized that ratification yesterday was impossible, and the senate adjourned. A radically different view of the Japanese treaty is held by those in the confidence of the state department who regard the position of Senator Hale as the result of a misapprehension. Three distinct benefits, they declare, will accrue to the United States by giving Japan the concessions desired in the way of a ratification of the proposed treaty by July 17 next and the omission of the immigration restriction from the treaty.

These advantages were enumerated as follows: First—The United States will secure the perpetuation of the passport arrangement of 1907 through diplomatic notes, and therefore feels able to dispense with that stipulation in the treaty of 1891 regarding immigration which expressed a potential right that never was exercised. This stipulation, it was pointed out yesterday, will not impair the inherent and sovereign right of the United States to legislate on the subject of immigration should it so desire.

Second—The industrial and artistic as well as property rights of Americans will be protected.

The diplomatic exchange in recent years, covering the rights of American patents and copyrights, are embodied now in a treaty.

Third—The United States will continue to receive "favored nation treatment" in whatever revision of the tariff Japan may undertake in the future.

It was in respect to Senator Hale's views with regard to the tariff that supporters of the state department particularly took issue.

Superfluous Hair

Why Not Shave It Off? If You Do It Right, It Does It Better Than Most Depilatories

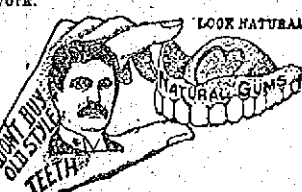

You might just as well shave as use a depilatory which is to be applied to remove superfluous hair. This simply removes the surface hair; therefore the effect is the same as shaving. The razor is more convenient and takes it off cleaner. Of course, it does not matter which way you do it; you only remove the surface hair, which will return stronger after each removal. The same applies to other worthless compounds and so-called "liquid cures." The Miracle is not like these; it is the only method that gives proof that it is absolutely non-poisonous, safe and sure. You are not asked to buy it on our SAVING WORD. It is the only preparation of hair which is endorsed by physicians, surgeons, dermatologists, medical journals, prominent magazines and newspapers. Remember, the longer you use such treatments as those referred to above the stronger the hair will grow and the harder it will be to remove it. The Miracle is sold at all good stores, including A. G. Pollard Co., New York, simply saying you want this booklet, and it will be mailed, sealed, at once.

Note—All readers of this paper who are afflicted with superfluous hair growths are strongly advised to write for information concerning this wonderful method, which is endorsed by the World over by eminent authorities, who have made a lifelong study of this subject.

"The Mikado" the comic opera presented by the pupils of the High school, was again given before a large audience last night in the school hall. The hall was packed to its seating capacity and the applause was frequent and hearty.

The performance received the heartiest praise from everybody present and the audience must have contained at least a hundred people from the towns that send their young people to the school. The ensemble was a real success, and it is possible that next year the pupils of the High school will give the Lowell people another operatic treat.

Arthur Hillier read an interesting paper on "Christian Morality" at the regular meeting of the North Chelmsford Social and Literary society Tuesday night. There was a large attendance and Mr. Hillier handled his subject in a very commendable manner.

After the reading of the paper the speaker was open to discussion and the speaker was asked a number of questions which he answered in a manner satisfactory to the members.

Music was provided by a quartet composed of Messrs. Tetley, Waterhouse, Gatenby and Bilson, and altogether a most profitable and enjoyable evening was spent.

WILFRID LAURIER

Opposed to Annexation of Canada to the United States

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Hugh Guthrie, M. P., of Guelph, Ont., a member of the liberal party and a staunch supporter of the Laurier government, and James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, were the guests of honor last night at the Washington day celebration of the Elliott club. Both spoke on the pending reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada. Mr. Guthrie said that he spoke with the sanction and approval of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and added:

"I state plainly and positively that there is in Canada no sentiment in favor of annexation to the United States. I do not know of one single public man in Canada who harbors such a thought or would countenance such a suggestion. Any dream, any wish or desire on the part of the people or the press of the United States that any political change, however slight, may in the future result from the present proposals, so far as Canada is concerned, must be eliminated absolutely from the discussion. Otherwise the judgment of Canada in regard to the matter will be plain, unmistakable and unalterable and may be expressed in your own characteristic vernacular—not for ours."

"However great might be the advantage to Canada, from the adoption of this arrangement, Canada must and will refuse it if in the slightest degree it tends to nullify our allegiance, the trust and devotion which Canada today reposes in the imperial crown of Great Britain. I do not for a moment suggest that this commercial arrangement will or can have such an effect. I do not believe it will now or hereafter."

"We must deal with absolute frankness with each other in regard to this phase of the subject and the frank and candid manner in which the president of the United States and the secretary of state have expressed themselves during the past week has been greatly appreciated in Canada."

"And let me add," said Mr. Guthrie, weighing his words carefully, "by way of confirmation, that the language I have used and the sentiments I have expressed upon the question of annexation which some of your people and press have sought to drag into this discussion have the direct sanction and approval of the prime minister of Canada."

Secretary Wilson confined himself to a discussion of some of the benefits he believed would accrue to the people of both countries from the adoption of the agreement.

PROF. NASH
CRITICIZES MARRIAGE OF AMERICAN HEIRESSSES
PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 23.—American

can heiresses, who marry titled foreigners, the American quarters in foreign cities the game of football as played in this country, and politics, all came in for severe criticism at the hands of Prof. Henry S. Nash of the Episcopal theological seminary of Cambridge, Mass., during an address delivered at the annual meeting of the Maine Society of the Sons of the American Revolution yesterday.

The marriage of American girls to titled Europeans was characterized as "brutal barrier and disgraceful to both sides" while American colonies abroad, the speaker declared to be "the most rotten in the world."

Football, Prof. Nash insisted, is dishonest. "Rule makers," he said, "get together in New York, and formulate rules and then return to their colleges and teach how to violate them."

Groton schoolboys visit Harvard, he said, and study the game, then return as coaches and corrupt the game. "If have been filled with unutterable shame," he declared in discussing politics, "at the disgraceful things that have happened here and brought our country into disrepute across the water. The trouble is we have been absent minded. We have got to get together for clean politics. The birth of a new democracy is coming on every side."

THREE ARRESTS

In Connection With a Train Robbery

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 23.—Three men have been arrested and more than $2000 in money and jewelry have been recovered as a result of the three days' search for the bandits who held up and robbed the Southern railway fast mail train at White Sulphur Springs last Saturday morning. The identity of the suspects still is unknown.

Following the capture of one of the robbers early Tuesday two other members of the gang were arrested yesterday.

Nearly $1000 in cash and jewelry valued at between $300 and $600 were found on them. When handcuffed the robbers broke down and admitted their participation in the hold-up.

TO MAKE HAIR CLEAN AND GLOSSY

(From the Toronto Times)
"Your hair will grow in beauty and color, and brilliance and luxuriance, if you will stop drenching and rinsing it with soap and water and use only a dry shampoo powder, sprinkled on the head once a week and brushed thoroughly through the hair."
"More dry, dull, brittle and faded hair can be traced to too much moisture than to any other cause. A good shampoo powder will remove every particle of dust, oil and dandruff from the head, leaving the scalp clean, cool and refreshed and the hair glossy, soft and silky."

"To make a shampoo powder simply mix four ounces of therax with four ounces of cornstarch. Therax tones up the hair from root to tip, and you need use no other tonic."

GARDNER TRIAL

Prosecutor Nott Expected to Take the Witness Stand

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—What promises to be the final day of the trial of Frank J. Gardner on a charge of attempted bribery opened yesterday. Assistant Attorney Nott ready to put the former state senator through the ordeal of a searching cross examination. Gardner, testifying in his own defense just before court adjourned Tuesday, emphatically denied that he had tried to bribe Congressman Otto Foraker, then a state senator, to vote against the anti-race-track bill in 1905 or that he had told Assistant Dist. Atty. Elder of Brooklyn anything about race-track legislation at Albany. It was Elder's testimony before the Merritt commission of what he said Gardner told him about race-track bill bribery that started that end of the bribery investigation and led eventually to Gardner's indictment.

Prosecutor Nott indicated that he would recall Mr. Elder today in rebuttal to reiterate his story of the $500,000 bribery fund, which he declares Gardner told him about.

Mr. Nott also was expected to take the stand himself to refute part of the testimony of one of the defense's witnesses.

Justice Seabury notified counsel that the case must go to the jury today. It was arranged to complete taking of testimony at the first session and devote the afternoon to summing up.

REV. FR. DENIZOT

Gave Banquet to Amateur Actors

The young men who recently presented "La Maitellon" were given a fine treat last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laroche, 218 Third street. The program consisted of a banquet, whist and musical selections, and the affair was given by Rev. Fr. Denizot, O. M. L. director of the play, as a token of appreciation of the good work rendered by the amateur actors.

At 7:30 o'clock the guests sat down to a sumptuous banquet served by Caterer Edmond Berger, and the name of Berger is sufficient to know that the food was of extra quality and plentiful. Rev. Fr. Denizot presided over the festivities, and after the repast he delivered appropriate remarks, thanking the young men for their success, and stated that the proceeds of the soiree after all expenses were paid, amounted to $275. These remarks were received with great applause. Several of the guests also made remarks, and then all proceeded to the music room, where an enjoyable program was rendered, everyone present doing his share.

Later tables were arranged and a game of whist was played. Refreshments and cigars were served.

A varied entertainment program was rendered by the following: Misses Clemence and M. Sharr, Alice Bratte, Marie Anne Bedard, M. Maynard, L. Guilbeault, Mrs. O. J. David, Messrs. Arcade Brunelle, O. J. David, Emery C. Gauvin, Jules Morissette, Adolphe Bouchard. Also several selections by the choir and the Centralville quartet. Miss Ida Monaghan accompanied on the piano.

During the evening Rev. Fr. J. N. Jacques, pastor of the church, paid a visit to the singers and made brief remarks.

STRONG ATTACK

Made on the Japanese Government

TOKIO, Feb. 23.—The spread of anarchistic doctrine in Japan was the basis of an attack on the government in the diet today. Members of the opposition introduced a resolution censuring the government for having permitted outlawry to reach a point where an attempt upon the life of the emperor had been planned. The resolution was defeated by a large majority.

The debate revived the recent conspiracy which resulted in the execution of Danjro Kotoku and his wife and ten other anarchists and the imprisonment of fourteen others. Premier Katsura outlined the efforts which were being made to prevent the growth of the movement.

THE FOURTH DEGREE

Lowell Men Advanced in the Knights of Columbus

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Hundreds of members of the fourth degree rank of the Knights of Columbus from all sections of New England assembled in Faneuil hall yesterday afternoon to witness the conferring of the degree, the highest in the order, on more than 250 candidates, the largest body that has ever gathered for that purpose in this city, with the exception of the first time it was given here, over 10 years ago.

At noon the district assembly, comprising representatives of various assemblies throughout the state, and the first ever to be held here, convened at the Boston City club. The meeting was called to order by Dr. Timothy Mahoney, master of the degree for Massachusetts.

Nearly 500 members, he said, have been added in this state in the past six months.

One of the duties of the district assembly is to choose a committee to nominate three members, from which a master will be chosen by the supreme master. During this part of the business, Capt. D. J. Gorman, vice-super-pre master for the province of New England, presided. James F. Gallagher of Newton, Michael J. Driscoll of South Boston and Owen C. Trainor of Malden were elected members of the committee to attend to this matter.

Charles F. Lyons of Boston, John H. Gordon of Jamaica Plain and Peter F. Hanley of Dorchester were chosen a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws. Rev. James J. McCarthy, state chaplain, made a short address of a congratulatory nature.

The degree work commenced about 3 o'clock in Faneuil hall.

Busy Men Keep ALLEOTONE in Their Office

ALLEOTONE is a concentrated liquid cell food composed of the very elements which compose the cells of your body. Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Grippe and all sicknesses due to lowered vitality caused by deficient cell material begin to yield to ALLEOTONE just as soon as the food which ALLEOTONE contains is conveyed by the blood to the places where it is required.

Sometimes the improper nourishment of your cells shows in other ways than colds or grippe. You feel "no good," your energy is gone, matters of moment demand attention, but you don't feel equal to them. In other words, you are not up to the normal. Since ALLEOTONE is a tonic absolutely without reactionary effect, it is especially beneficial during these periods of mental or physical exhaustion. Business men who have learned the value of ALLEOTONE in their homes also keep it in their offices, as a tonic to take whenever their work is proving too exhausting.

This renewed vitality is not artificial, any more than the strength which food brings to a starving man is artificial. The cells which are weakened by hunger for some necessary element of their composition is fed by ALLEOTONE, and quite naturally the feeling of lassitude passes away.

ALLEOTONE is absolutely harmless. You should keep it always on hand to cope with colds, feverishness and the feeling of being run down.

THE STAR COURSE

Prof. Steiner's Lecture "On the Trail of the Immigrant"

Professor Edward Alfred Steiner of Grinnell college, Iowa, a student and traveler, was the speaker in the Star course lecture under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association at the First Congregational church in Merrimack street last night. Prof. Steiner's subject was "On the Trail of the Immigrant."

The speaker's opening was a rather humorous one and his remarks met with the approval of his listeners.

He referred to the common belief that our ideals—all that we have achieved—have back of them nothing more than the economic motive and then added that the man who believes that there are other forces at work in human society is called either a fool or a liar and when summarizing out idea of him we say, "He is a liar."

"I am sure I can say that there are large movements in our history which have back of them, idealistic conceptions or motives. Our forefathers came to this country because they had ideals which they wanted to realize. If they were seeking anything, they were seeking for a city whose maker and builder was God."

"But, you say, this miracle of assimilation has taken place because the alien groups who came here were of one race, or of one, they spoke the same language; or at least, they had common ideas."

"We speak of the new immigrant as the new problem, and say that no such assimilation is possible again. They are of different races and blood."

"I suppose there are 57 varieties of more or less language spoken in this city. You say we have nothing in common; they have their own ideas about the church, the state and the home."

"I share all of your apprehensions; it is well to be on one's guard. A false optimism is just as bad as a false pessimism. But it is certainly true that the immigrant of today, who comes to Lowell, is not an economic problem. Eighty-six per cent of those who came over ten years ago, were between the ages of 14 and 44; an age to do the work which our civilization requires. Three thousand landed in New York in one day, and they all went to work. If they had been 3000 university graduates, what would you have done with them? The work which these immigrants do is fundamental and essential. I have some respect for my own calling, yet I am positive of this, that if tomorrow all the college professors and university would strike, it would not make much difference to creation. But let the pickaxe and the shovel rest for 24 hours, and there will be something doing; or rather, there will not be something doing."

"Another of the problems mentioned is that these men are going back with their hoarded wealth—with the money that they are drawing from the United States. I want to draw for six months to study that subject. I traveled storage, because I am especially fond of that variety of human beings whom we call 'folks.' On shipboard, the first cabin passengers said that the steerage passengers were going over with American money to foreign countries, and those countries would spend the money to build navies and to equip armies. I found out that a thousand of the steerage passengers were carrying over $25,000, while a small group of Americans—about 12—carried over more than $100,000. The important difference is that the people in the steerage earned their money, and I am not so sure about the rest of us."

"Another phase of this economic problem is the question of standards of living. You have here, as in other places, groups of men living together, without their families. Take any group of men here—20 in all—they go off alone, and after a while you could not tell them from these 'dagos,' as you call them."

"When a man brings his wife two things present themselves. These people live here under absolutely different conditions. Agricultural people, who have lived in the open, are crowded into your cities. Moreover, the homes into which they are put necessarily are in crowded quarters, and do not lend themselves to the well to cleanliness. But you must have noticed that the standards of living rise with the years; that these people stay here. They get so Americanized that they live up to their incomes, and often a little beyond; and in a year or so they are going to buy automobiles and mortgage their homes."

"But a problem that presses much harder is the ethical problem. Shall we be able to assimilate these people, and if so, is it desirable? What will become of this type which we call the New England, or American type?"

"The things are helping us to solve this problem. The majority of people coming to us now are of a low social grade. They come from small, broken countries, where national feeling is not very strong, and when they come into this great country the first thing they want to do is to blend with this larger group. You never really assimilate an Englishman, until he is dead and buried in our cemetery, and then he cannot help himself. He has back of him Great Britain, and Great Britain is bigger than the United States. But the man whose world ended where the sun touched the village pasture—bring him face to face with our great institutions and our great institutions, and he melts himself like brass before the fire."

"Another thing that helps us is the same great environment that has moulded the Yankee temperament. I do not mean to say that there is no serious ethical problem here. In the mixture of races, I do mean to say that in spite of themselves the American type is engraving itself upon these people. In a few years, if they have

TOWN MEETING

Call Issued to the Dracut Voters

The annual Dracut town meeting will take place in Grange hall, Dracut Centre, on Monday, March 6th, and besides electing officers on that day, the town also makes its appropriations for the various departments for the ensuing year.

The election of officers and the appropriations are considered the two big items of the day, but there are numerous others which command attention, and judging from the articles in the warrant, this year's meeting has plenty to contend with and should be an interesting one.

The warrant has 33 articles.

The first calls for the choice of a moderator, while the second and third have to do with the election of officers.

Article 4 is to hear the report of the auditor, and the next article is relative to confirming the list of jurors as recommended by the selectmen.

Under article 6, the various department appropriations will be considered.

Article 7 asks that the town treasurer be instructed and authorized to borrow, with the approval of the selectmen, such sums of money as may be needed to pay an amount not exceeding $35,000, to defray town charges in anticipation of taxes.

Article 8, to raise and appropriate $1000 for the brown and gypsy moth work.

Article 9 asks that the incoming board of selectmen be authorized to dispose of the Penny E. Hall lot, so-called.

Article 10 asks that the town auditor audit the books of the tax collector and town treasurer every three months.

Article 11 calls for the raising of an appropriation of $100, the latter to be expended under the supervision of the tree warden.

Article 12 asks that an amount not exceeding $3000 be raised and appropriated or borrowed to be used under provisions of chapter 273, acts of 1905, and instruct the selectmen to petition and appropriate in raising the roof of the highway commissioners for an allotment to be used on Lakeview avenue between the Lowell line and the Pelham car tracks.

Article 13 asks that an appropriation of $350 be raised for installing a water plant in the Broadway school and that a committee be appointed to look after the work.

enough good food, they will be talking about their ancestors who came over in the Mayflower!"

Speaking of the politeness of a group of Italians, and the prejudice shown against them by their American fellow travelers, the professor said that the men's hands were clean, and their breaths did not smell of strong drink. They smelled of garlic, but garlic is innocent. No man ever committed murder under the influence of garlic.

"When you measure these people, measure them as you measure your measures. By whom do you measure statesmanship? George Washington. Human ideals? Abraham Lincoln. Have not these people, too, men of that type who rose upon their political horizon? It is true that the people who come to this land are not cultured. If they were cultured, they would not do our dirty work. But they are capable of taking the very best that we have got. Are we willing to convey to them the best that we have got?"

"The danger is that these immigrants at your door will not do what we do in politics. The danger is that they are going to do exactly the same things. We cannot lay it to the charge of these immigrants that they have corrupted Springfield, Ill., and dozens of other places, for there are no foreigners there."

"Every one of the children in your home is a problem. Every stranger that comes to your city full grown is a problem. I am not trying to take away your apprehensions. I am trying to take away your prejudice. I am pleading with you, that you will try to keep this country free and to make it noble."

WHAT CAUSES MANY BAD COMPLEXIONS

Mrs. Mae Martyn, the noted writer on health and beauty for the Los Angeles Times, recently said:

"Most muddy and spotted complexions are caused by the pores of the skin becoming clogged. Keep the skin clean and avoid the use of face powder, which fills up the pores. If women only would use a good lotion instead of powder they would be better off."

Mrs. Martyn added that a splendid and inexpensive lotion can be made by dissolving 4 ounces of spruam in 1/2 pint of hot water, then adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. She says this lotion is better than any powder, as it clears and whitens the skin, besides making it soft, velvety and youthful. It does not rub off easily like powder and has been found excellent as a protection against chapping, cold winds, and for treating cold sores.

SINGLE TAX LEAGUE VETO BILL WINS

Plans to Take a Hand in Game of Politics The Majority in the House of Commons Was 124

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—At the meeting of the Massachusetts single tax league, yesterday, plans were formulated for "playing politics" in securing the passage by the legislature of a constitutional amendment providing for the initiative and referendum. A hopeful view of the result was presented by Prof. Lewis J. Johnson of Harvard, neighborhood leagues were urged, a state canvass of every citizen of the state was recommended and outlined, a message from Gov. Ross, thanking the league for its stand for the initiative and referendum was received, a resolution was passed commending the action of Mayor Fitzgerald for his recommendations regarding taxation, and the league placed itself in favor of reciprocity with Canada.

Prof. James R. Carret presided, and Rev. Daniel Roy Freeman of Braintree opened the meeting with an address on "The Aims and Means of Progress."

Pres. Carret introduced Prof. Johnson, who offered a resolution, which was adopted, urging upon the general court the passage of house bill No. 365, or its substantial equivalent, provided for the establishment of the initiative and referendum in this commonwealth.

George W. Fox of Revere said he believed it to be the duty of every member and friend of the league to assist in the circulation of a petition throughout the state and get the attitude of direct legislation.

Prof. Johnson said he believed the house of representatives would give the necessary two-thirds vote in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment. He went on to say that the matter must come up for a second vote before being submitted to the people and that, therefore, the real struggle would come next year. There was more danger in the senate, he thought, although only a majority vote is needed in that body.

Says Reciprocity With Canada Will be a Big Boom

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 23.—Discussing an attack made on him in a letter from a North Dakota farmer, read in the United States senate Tuesday, James J. Hill of the Great Northern railroad said:

"The pending reciprocity treaty before congress is the most important this country has had before it since the Civil war. If, after having kept Canada waiting 40 years, we turn her down again, our country will suffer, and one of the hardest hit of our industries will be that of wheat raising."

"England is waiting and watching for just that thing to happen. Within the fortnight Austen Chamberlain had called up for decision in the British parliament the measure providing an imperial federation for England and her colonies."

SURPRISE PARTY

IN WHICH JACK McAULIFF WAS PRESENTED A RING

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. Jack McAuliff at his home on Pollard street, last evening, when a number of his friends presented him a signet ring. The presentation speech was made by Miss Nora McAuliff. A pleasing program was then carried out, including piano solos by Miss Agnes Devine and Mr. Peter Golden; vocal solos by Mr. Gerald Beane. Games were then played. Refreshments were served by the Misses Nora McAuliff, Katherine Leary and Beatrice Courtney. The party broke up at a late hour.

They may feel sure their kindness was appreciated and will not be forgotten by Mrs. Winifred Brick and family.

"Suppose that Canada joins the imperial federation of English countries, as is proposed. A reasonable differential that England might impose upon our wheat would be 15 cents a bushel, and that would mean our wheat growers would find their whole product lowered that much per bushel in value. Great Britain would take over practically all of the $200,000,000 in round numbers that Canada now pays us for manufactured articles; then add the six hundred and more millions we export to Great Britain and we find that if we fail to adopt the reciprocity agreement with Canada and drive it to an imperial federation we are cheapening our wheat crop annually, say 15 cents per bushel, and at the same time we are losing $300,000,000 of export business to England and Canada."

Beane. Games were then played. Refreshments were served by the Misses Nora McAuliff, Katherine Leary and Beatrice Courtney. The party broke up at a late hour.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Premier Asquith was the recipient of a tremendous ovation from his supporters in the house of commons last night, when the parliament bill, otherwise known as the Veto bill, a measure designed to curtail the power of the lords, was passed on its first reading by the government's full majority of 124. The vote was 351 to 227.

The nationalists first rose in their places, cheering wildly and waving their hats. The liberal members quickly emulated their example. This exhibition of enthusiasm was repeated a few minutes later when the prime minister quietly left the scene of his victory in his initial action against the lords.

The debate today maintained a good oratorical level, but presented few new points. The dominant note of the nationalist speeches was an invitation to the government to settle the matter by agreement. Frederick E. Smith of the Walton division, Liverpool, in a slashing attack, accused the government of outraging the convictions of half their fellow-countrymen on a matter that could never be settled except by consent. The British people, he said, would support the opposition in any resistance, however desperate, they might offer to the bill.

The Rt. Hon. George Wyndham also urged the government to accept the invitation to settle the question by agreement. Otherwise, he declared, sooner or later the opposition would repeat the bill.

To these persuasions Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, concluding the debate for the government, replied that ministers would not have 50 supporters left if they agreed to enter such a conference now. He contended, as compared with the referendum, the government's moderate proposals were the veriest Tories, and no step would be neglected to carry the bill swiftly into law. The government did not fear the referendum as a check on progressive legislation, but regarded it as a vicious system, especially unsuitable for this country, and its adoption would lead to Jacobinism, Caesarism and anarchy.

At the close of Mr. Churchill's speech came a little scene. He had said that among the legislative proposals to be submitted, in addition to home rule, would be a measure for creating a fair and evenly constituted second chamber. A chorus of shouts from the opposition members: "When?"

Mr. Churchill was momentarily embarrassed and sought refuge by declaring he could not reveal the government's intentions in answer to a chance question.

A competitive examination of applicants for the position of superintendent of the Suffolk school, children's institutions department, Boston, will be held March 3, 1911.

The salary of the position is $2000, together with house and board for the superintendent and his family.

Applicants must be not less than 30 nor over 50 years of age. They should have substantial experience in school management and teaching of boys; or substantial experience in teaching of boys and training in business; or experience as superintendent, or assistant superintendent in a reformatory institution relating to boys, combined with some knowledge of educational methods. They should have some familiarity with manual, vocational, and physical training, and with purchase of supplies.

Applicants must be in good health, and will be given a physical examination.

The board of trustees of the children's institutions department will probably prefer to appoint a married man.

At the request of the trustees, the examination will be open to citizens of the commonwealth who have resided therein for one year next preceding date of application, and will not be confined to citizens of Boston.

The examination will be confined to a detailed statement of training and experience, and to questions on a paper on topics connected with the duties of the position. An oral examination also will probably be given to candidates who pass the written examination.

Blank applications and training and experience papers may be obtained by applying in person or by letter at the office of the civil service commission, room 152, State House, Boston, Mass. Both of these papers must be filled out and filed on or before February 28, 1911. The training and experience paper will, if possible, be marked prior to date of examination, and if so marked only those who receive a pass mark on training and experience will be notified to appear for examination.

SEEKS DIVORCE

HUSBAND

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Divorce proceedings of Mabel Taliaferro against her husband, Frederick W. Thompson, one of the proprietors of Luna Park and formerly of the New York Hippodrome, were announced yesterday. Since November Miss Taliaferro has been living in a leased apartment at 2719 Pine Grove avenue, Chicago.

It was said yesterday in reply to callers at the house and inquirers by telephone that she was not at home. Neighbors said that Mr. Thompson visited his wife on Sunday last.

The wedding of the actress and the theatrical manager took place in New York four years ago and, until recently it was considered one of the happiest of theatrical marital alliances.

Miss Taliaferro is the daughter of an actress and her sister, Miss Edith Taliaferro, also is an actress. She was born in New York city in 1887 and her professional debut occurred when she was 2 1/2 years old. Her first appearance was in "Blue Jeans," and her salary was $25 a week. "Her first real hit" was secured in "Children of the Ghetto" when she was only 11 years old. She continued to win the affection of playgoers as "Lovely Mary" in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," and while playing the leading role in "Polity of the Circus."

Her marriage to Mr. Thompson came at the height of her career as a young actress. The romance which began only two weeks before the wedding, Miss Taliaferro is a Catholic, and it was through the friendship of "Vicar-General" Moore of the New York archdiocese that the church waived its ban on the marriage of one of its daughters with a non-Catholic on behalf of Mr. Thompson.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

It would be difficult to find a more novel or sensational act than the Broncho Busters, who are appearing at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week. The act carries a company of 10 people and a troop of four spirited horses, and there is every variety of rough riding, roping and broncho busting imaginable. It is taken right out of real western life, and nothing like it has ever been seen on a Lowell stage before.

The Glendale quartet has returned after a long absence and presents a novel and entertaining act filled with tuneful songs of every variety. These young singers have improved since their last appearance here and are unquestionably one of the best quartets in vaudeville today.

Then there is Charley Harris. Mr. Harris is a talented character comedian with an amusing monolog and a screamingly funny "makeup." Rastus Brown is a colored dancer with most unusually nimble feet, who challenges anybody in Lowell to beat him at his own game. Rastus will meet all comers on Friday night at 8:40 o'clock. Miss Estelle Adams is a dainty soloist with an excellent repertoire.

The moving pictures are all new and of the daylight variety. A continuous performance is presented, daily from 1 until 10:30 o'clock.

Lawyer J. H. Guillet, supreme chief of the French American Foresters, tendered a fine reception by the members of Court Josephine, No. 8, P. F. of A., of Woonsocket, R. I.

bers of the supporting company enthusiastically aid the stars, with the result that an attractive performance is given. Only two more days remain to see this beautiful production, as presented by the Donald Mack Stock Co. with Severin DeDeyn at this popular little playhouse. Ever since the opening Monday afternoon there have been throngs to see this romantic play, and all have declared that this is the best drama of its kind seen in the city of Lowell.

Next week, "Charlie's Aunt."

THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons shows as its feature subject the powerful domestic drama staged by the Biograph company, entitled "The Diamond Star," and a better or more interesting feature has not been shown in many a day. The husband's infatuation for a more brilliant society woman than his stay-at-home wife, nearly leads him wrong, but just in time an accidental prank of a neighbor's child sets every thing right again. "Whiff's Double" is a really funny comedy, and a thrilling western subject, "Lieut. Scott's Narrow Escape," will please the lovers of excitement. The musical program is excellent, and the whole program is to be seen only at the Theatre Voyons.

REV. DR. AKED

TO ACCEPT A CALL TO SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Dr. Charles Aked, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York, of which John D. Rockefeller is a member, has been formally called to the pastorate of the First Congregational church of this city, according to an announcement made last night.

According to one of the trustees of the First Congregational church Dr. Aked will accept the call.

A few days ago a sanctioned publication of a letter by Dr. Aked was made in an English paper, setting forth the fact of his dissatisfaction with his clerical work in the east.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Rich with pathos and humor, tears and laughter, and a dash of old fashioned melodrama, and a moral or two, sugar coated so that they are pleasant to take, are delightfully blended in "The Girl of the Year." The play touches upon a condition which has prevailed throughout the history of mankind, or at least as far back as we have any authentic records—"what a woman will do for the man she loves."

While the scenes and incidents of the play pertain to the past, the exposition of the lesson of the play, and hence the production is entitled to be called a real play, a thing of more than evanescent interest, and there is no question that it is capable of doing good. The action centres about a road agent with too great a fondness for other people's money, and "the Girl" who runs a saloon on Cloudy Mountain, Cal., during the days of the gold fever in the late forties. How "the Girl" labors unceasingly to right a great wrong done her lover, and put him back again on the straight and narrow path, nearly wrecking her own life in her heroic efforts, is most vividly portrayed.

Severin DeDeyn is seen in the part of the road agent, and Miss Carol Arden in the part of "the Girl," and both artists make the characters seem not stage creations, but reality. The mem-

Playing at Opera House Relates Strange Experience

Miss Geraldine Russell, who is performing at the Opera House with the Thompson-Flynn Stock Co., has quite a theatrical career, although she is not fond of relating her many experiences. When approached by a Sun representative, who was anxious to know about her theatrical life, she first evaded the questions put to her, but finally agreed to give a few facts.

Miss Russell, who is a handsome looking young woman, had her first theatrical experience with amateur dramatic clubs performing for church benefits. This was in Minneapolis, Minn., where she was born and brought up. She made such a success of it, that her many friends urged her to accept an offer that was made to her by the manager of "Oliver Twist." After a short length of time, she was assigned the title role in the latter play, which she readily mastered.

After acquiring considerable experience in the new life, Miss Russell accepted an engagement with the Davis Stock Co. in Fitchburg, Mass. She also played with the following companies: Monte Cristo, "The James K. Currier Co., in the Old Clothes Man, Pedro the Italian, Robins Stock Co., Bennett & Moulton, and several others, finally to play with the Thompson-Flynn Stock Co., now playing at the Opera House, and playing this week "Girls," in which Miss Russell assumes the role of "Kate West," Fred Lance, writer, and she plays it well, too.

Miss Russell has had quite a number of thrilling experiences while traveling. It is not astonishing, for she went from coast to coast and performed in hundreds of cities. One of those experiences was in the state of Pennsylvania some eight years ago.

It was in a small town near Scranton. Miss Russell was then with the Bennett-Moulton Co. The members of the company were waiting at the railroad station for a train, when a stranger approached one of the party, named "Sully," and asked him what the trouble was, that he looked ill. "I am sick with small pox," answered Sully. Nothing more was said about it, and the company boarded the train. After traveling a couple of hours, the company landed in another small town, where they had to stay over night. They went to the first hotel, but were refused admittance, for the town officials had been notified by telegraph that a member of the company was suffering with small pox. The party proceeded to the next place but were received in the same way. Finally they struck the best hotel of the town and were admitted. Hardly had they begun eating a well earned meal than the police put in an appearance and ordered them out. The only place for shelter was the railroad station and they made for it. The company was composed of 27 people, including eight women and a one-year-old baby. They stayed in the station over night and then were quarantined in an old car, while the sick man lay in a coffin, confined to a first class car. Well the company was thus stranded, guarded by the militia for three days.

Strange to say none of the company was bothered with the disease, as the answer made by Sully was intended to scare off a curious questioner. Nevertheless the company disbanded to reorganize some time later.

Miss Russell likes her business and devotes all her energy to it. She is evidently a conscientious worker and she casually remarked that a good many people imagine that play acting is mere fun, but it is work, and hard work for those who want to excel. Excellence is rarely attained without hard work and in this respect the dramatic art is no exception.

House yesterday afternoon and night. The cast was as follows:

Dallas Brown.....James Manley

"GIRLS"

Tonight and for the remainder of this week, afternoon and evening, "Girls," Clyde Fitch's best comedy, will be presented by the Thompson-Flynn Stock company, at the Opera House.

As played originally, "Girls," was a success for one whole year at Daly's theatre, New York, and is a particularly good selection for the second week of what promises to be a highly successful stock season in this city.

"Girls," is a comedy of the new school, noted for its strikingly original lines and situations and the author called for staging with a view to realism that has seldom been equaled. Fitch was noted for his gift of observation, his feeling for the surface texture of life, his habit of keeping his eyes open, not only in the theatre, but out of it; and was able to make his public see these same interesting characteristics of every day humanity by the magic power of his pen. "Girls," is a clean, refreshing play that makes one happier for having seen it. Next week "The Lion and the Mouse," will be the bill.

6 O'CLOCK SENT BACK TO MAINE Man Was Before Judge Hadley on Vagrancy Charge

Alphonso F. Nichols, a respectable looking man of about 50 years of age, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with being a vagrant, and although he entered a plea of not guilty, after Captain Atkinson of the police department had given testimony it looked as though the defendant was going to receive a sentence to the state farm, the usual sentence imposed upon vagrants. Nichols, however, told a story which appealed to the judge and, feeling that the man might be telling the truth, the court decided to look into the matter and as a result Judge Frederic A. Fisher was called into court and recognized the defendant as a one-time prosperous tailor in Brunswick, Me. The recognition between Judge Fisher and the defendant was mutual, and when the former told Judge Hadley that the man was an honest and industrious person the man was released on condition that he return to his home in Brunswick.

According to the testimony offered by Captain Atkinson, Nichols entered the police station last night and said he had no money, no friends and no place to go; that he was tired and wanted to be put up for the night. The request was granted, but when Nichols awoke this morning instead of being allowed to go his way he found that a charge of vagrancy had been preferred against him.

Nichols testifying in his own behalf said he was born and brought up in Brunswick, Me., where he lived until about three months ago. He was a tailor in that place and said he conducted a place of his own for 30 years. He had a good home but his wife died and later when his daughter married he was left alone and he went to New York to either get work or enter into business on a small scale for himself. Upon reaching the metropolis he found that there was little doing in his line and he went from city to city, and finally landed in Worcester, almost penniless and ill in health. His condition was such that he had to appeal for aid and was given a ticket of entrance to the state hospital at Tewksbury.

After being treated at Tewksbury he was put out to do work, but found that he was unable to perform the duties and Tuesday he left the institution and walked to Lowell. Last night he said his feet were so sore that when he reached the police station he decided to seek lodging for the night.

Judge Hadley took an interest in the man's story and knowing that Associate Judge Frederic A. Fisher was a former resident of Brunswick, sent for him, and when the latter arrived and questioned him, Judge Fisher informed Judge Hadley that so far as his story of his life in Brunswick was concerned the man was telling the truth. Nichols said he knew Judge Fisher.

"Seeing that you have told the truth, I want to know if you will go back to Brunswick if I allow you to?" asked Judge Hadley.

"I will go back just as soon as I can," was the answer.

Nichols was figuring on where he was to get the money to get back home when Judge Hadley interposed and said: "Never mind worrying about your fare; I will see that you get back to Brunswick all right."

Nichols, with a broad smile on his face thanked the court and Judge Fisher, and then held a conference with Probation Officer Slattery, and in a few minutes he was on his way to the depot to catch a train.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE WAS ATTACKED BY LAWYER PEABODY

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Christian Science was attacked by Frederick W. Peabody, an old antagonist and an attorney of this city, in a hearing today before the legislative committee of public health on bills introduced by Mr. Peabody compelling all practitioners to register with the state board of registration in medicine. Mr. Peabody declared that Christian Science had never made a real cure and that it was using religion as a cloak for fraud. He said that it was only practiced for money and that if there were no fees in connection with it there would not be six practitioners in the state.

Mr. Peabody closed his argument with an attack on Alfred Farlow of the publication committee of the Christian Science church. The remonstrants to the bills were heard at the afternoon session.

GRECIAN DANCES

Fine Entertainment by Children of Mary of Immaculate Conception

The Grecian dances given by the Children of Mary of the Immaculate Conception parish in Associate hall last night was the greatest event of the season. It surpassed the famous Colonial party conducted by the young girls last year and was enjoyed by an audience that crowded the hall. The affair was under the direction of Miss Goodman of Boston and the fifty young women, who took part in the dances, acquitted themselves most creditably. The hall was beautifully decorated and the old Grecian idea was carried out. This feature, never attempted here

BOWLING GAMES

Some Lively Contests on the Alleys

The game between the Druggists and the Producers in the Moody Bridge league series last night proved to be a close and exciting contest. The Druggists won two of the three points and captured the total by a margin of ten pins. Malloux of the winning team was high man.

The Ironquols had little or no trouble in putting it all over the El Toros in the game in the minor league last night. The Indians were in excellent condition and put up a great game despite the fact that one of the regular members of the team was missing. Fielding and Mahan of the winning aggregation went over the 300 mark.

There were two games played in the Manufacturers league. The one between the Bonit and Appleton teams proved to be a good one and also that luck as well as science assists the Bonit team in holding on to the leadership in the league. Despite the fact that the Bonit team lost the pinfall by nine pins it won two of the three points. In the game between the Bigelow and Hamiltons the latter team won all three points. The scores:

BIG ROAD RACE

THREE CARS DIVIDED HONORS IN THE CONTEST

SAN LEANDRO, Cal., Feb. 23.—Three cars divided honors in the Oakland-Panama road race yesterday over the San Leandro and Hayward triangle. The best time was made in the heavy car race, won by the National car No. 5, driven by Charles Meise, who attained an average speed of 66 miles an hour, and finished on a flat tire. Bert Dangler in the Pope Hartford

No. 7, who lost first place in the heavy car race by 40 seconds, defeated Meise in the free for all with several seconds to spare.

Jack Fleming in the Pope-Hartford No. 1, took third place in both the heavy car race and the free for all. The light car race resulted in an easy victory for the Meyer, driven by Bigelow.

HOGAN'S BOUT

He is Master of "Knock-out" Brown

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—"One Round" Hogan of California gained the popular decision over "Knock-out" Brown of New York in a 19-round bout at the Madison Athletic club here last night.

Brown failed to make the showing he did against Ad Wolgast in Philadelphia recently. It was a hard fight but Hogan got to Brown as no other fighter has been able to do. When "Knock-out" mixed, Hogan mixed with him and met the former at every point. The California outpointed, outboxed and out fought the hardy New York lightweight and the big house generally voted the laurels to Hogan when the last gong had sounded.

Hogan came near living up to the reputation which his fighting name implies. With a right and left to the head in the first he sent Brown staggering into a neutral corner. It was a new experience to Brown and he clinched and covered carefully to the end of the round.

Three rounds belonged to Brown, the second, fourth and ninth. The third and sixth were even breaks and to Hogan went the rest.

FRANKIE MADOLE

WAS OUTCLASSED BY "PACKEY" McFARLAND

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—"Packy" McFarland of Chicago, had all the better of a six round bout with Frankie Madole of Pittsburg, at the American Athletic club here last night.

The Pittsburger was game and took much punishment. He landed numerous good blows but McFarland at all times seemed his master. At the finish Madole appeared very tired and his opponent did not show a mark.

"RUSSIAN LION" WON

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 23.—George Hackenschmidt defeated Charles (Kid) Cutler of Chicago in two straight falls last night. The first fall came after 41 minutes and 23 seconds. The second Hackenschmidt took easily in nine minutes and 39 seconds.

HARRY LEWIS WON

PARIS, Feb. 23.—Harry Lewis, the American welterweight, won a 25-round fight from "Blink" McCloskey last night. McCloskey put up a good fight but was outclassed.

CALLED A DRAW

NEW BEDFORD, Feb. 23.—Frank Mallett of Pawtucket and Jeff Clark of New York went 12 rounds to a draw before the New Bedford Athletic club last night. Clark did the better boxing throughout the match.

Chicken Roskin of this city knocked out Homer Carpenter of Fall River in the third round of what was scheduled to be an eight-round go.

In the simultaneous play A. J. Bennett of Boston, Willis Hill of Nashua, N. H., and W. C. Parrow of Boston won.

Today there will be a tournament for special prizes.

PRINCETON DEFEATED YALE

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 23.—In a close and exciting basketball game here last night, Princeton defeated Yale 36 to 32. The score was tied at the end of the second half and an extra period was played.

TO HONOR FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF PROCLAMATION OF CITY AS CAPITAL

ROME, Feb. 23.—A most notable gathering of European rulers will be assembled in Rome in March. They will be guests of Pope Pius X, and the quinquennial on the occasion of the fortieth anniversary of the proclamation of Rome as the capital of United Italy.

Those mentioned more particularly as intending to be present are Emperor William of Germany, President Fallieres of France, King Haakon of Norway, and King Peter of Serbia. It is regarded as not improbable that King George of England may visit Rome after his coronation. The pope will be the center of one of the most impressive gatherings of distinguished men that has occurred in recent times.

RUSSIAN DUMA

REFUSES TO ACT ON ABOLITION OF THE JEWISH PALE

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—The Duma last night by a vote of 208 to 155 declined to express an opinion for or against the bill providing for the abolition of the Jewish pale, which was introduced last summer, but referred the bill to the committee on the inviolability of person, to make a report.

The bill, which favors giving to Jews the right of unrestricted residence in Russia, originally was supported by 166 members of the opposition and Center, Jewish circles here are greatly pleased at the progress made here. It is considered that the bill will ultimately pass the council of the empire if Premier Stolypin supports it.

WOMEN VOTERS

HAVE WORKED A REVOLUTION IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 23.—For the second time in a month the votes of women have worked a revolution in Seattle. In Tuesday's primary election to choose 18 candidates for councilmen the women voters followed up their vote of February 7, which ousted Mayor Hiram C. Gill and his appointive officers, by defeating all but three candidates who were accused of being on intimate terms with the late Gill administration.

The proportion of women voting Tuesday, compared with the total registration was larger than that of men.

GEO. ROBERTSON CHICKEN CLUB

Not a Bargain Counter Had Their Big Bowling Game Yesterday

George H. Robertson takes exception to the report quoting Jesse Froehlich, managing director of the Benz concern, to the effect that it has not been the policy of the Benz company to pay the drivers of its racing cars any salaries and that their only compensation has been the prize money they won. Robertson won the Vanderbilt cup and the Fairmount Park races in 1905 and the Lowell and Fairmount Park races in 1909, but has retired from racing to become the president of the Auto Supply Company.

"Personally, I do not believe that a racing driver who drives without any compensation, except prize money, he may win, is worth having as a pilot of racing cars," says Robertson. "I have always insisted on a regular fee for driving cars in races and if I won any prize money, I was to get that in addition to the money I received for competing. It might be all right to let some ambitious youngster handle a car in an unimportant race because he was willing to drive without a salary, but in big races I do not race many big concerns are likely to follow this plan."

What sort of policy would it be for an automobile manufacturing concern to spend from $15,000 to $25,000 constructing a high class racing car, spending thousands in entering it in races and then sacrificing the entire investment simply because they can get a driver, reputation doubtful, for little or no money to handle it against drivers who are paid and who are willing to take a chance here and there. Cheap quality may be all right in other things but not in automobile racing. The large spender obtains the most results."

"While it is a fact that I did not get any money from the Benz company while preparing for the Vanderbilt cup race last fall, in which I did not race because of my accident, I did have a contract by which I was to be paid for driving Benz cars in the Vanderbilt, Fairmount Park and Grand Prix races. In addition to this, I was paid a salary for driving Benz cars in the races and time trials on the Florida beach last winter."

"Anyone who knows me personally, will vouch for me when I say that I never was a driver who could be engaged at bargain counter prices. I was possibly the highest salaried driver in this country and as such tried to give full value for the money. I drove as well as I could, was always on the level and tried to be square with everyone. As for my driving again, will say that I have charge of a fine business now and that I will devote my entire time to this and nothing else."

The semi-annual bowling carnival of the Chicken club was held yesterday afternoon on Les Miserables alleys. The teams lined up as follows:

Young Chickens—Henry Keyes, capt., Albert Allard, John Primeau, Eugene Quinn and John J. Duff. Old Chickens—James Landry, capt., William Millinson, Joseph Leary, Lucien Turcotte and Joseph D'Amour.

While none of the bowling records were smashed, if the club had charged admission to the alleys they would have netted a neat sum and the bowling enthusiasts would have been well repaid for their expenditure.

The feature of the game was the bowling of Albie Allard, the former basketball player, who despite his avocations, did good work. John Duff was back in the harness again and while he did not bowl in his old time form he showed that he could come back. John Primeau, the pride of the Boston & Northern, as there with the bowling of Albie Allard, the former basketball player, who despite his avocations, did good work. # JAPANESE TREATY

the U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—An effort was made to crowd through the senate yesterday the new treaty with Japan on the subject of commerce and navigation, but it met with stubborn resistance from a wholly unexpected quarter. Senator Hale said that the treaty represented a surrender by the administration of a commercial advantage which this country by right should enjoy for another year over the nations of Europe with whom Japan is negotiating new commercial relations.

Senator Lodge, who reported the treaty from the senate committee on foreign relations which agreed to report it after its provisions had been explained by Secretary of State Knox, was unable to satisfy the objectors.

Considerable feeling was exhibited by Mr. Lodge in answering the Maine senator's criticisms. It had been expected that there might be some opposition from Pacific coast senators, because of the elimination from the new treaty of all reference to the immigration of laborers, as covered by the existing treaty of 1894, which the new convention is intended to supersede. The western senators, however, offered no arguments against ratification beyond demanding time in which to obtain an understanding of its provisions.

An executive session of the senate was convened shortly after 5 o'clock last night to consider the new treaty. Several senators were immediately curious to know why there was such haste to have the treaty ratified. Although this reason was not stated, the general belief was that the administration desired action before western states had time to memorialize their representatives to oppose it should the elimination of the immigration clause be deemed objectionable to the interests of the Pacific slope. Senator Lodge said that the administration desired prompt ratification as an additional proof of the cordiality of this government toward Japan.

The treaty might have slipped through had it not been for Mr. Hale. Mr. Lodge had made a speech asserting that there was no danger of objectionable immigration under the treaty, because that question would be taken care of by laws and police regulations, and for the additional reason that Japan through diplomatic channels had assured this government of her intention to exercise the most rigid control of passports. At this point, however, Mr. Hale interposed objections to ratification.

No fault was expressed by the Maine senator with the immigration feature, but he charged that it involved reciprocity with Japan as objectionable to orthodox protectionists as that contemplated in the reciprocity agreement with Canada.

On every side senators who had been disposed to accept without question the report of the committee on foreign relations pressed him for an explanation.

Attention was directed by Mr. Hale to the absence from the new treaty of the protocol of the treaty of 1894 in respect to the Japanese tariff to be applicable to the United States. Under that protocol the present statutory tariff with Japan would be continued until July 17, 1912, while, if the new treaty were approved, a new and higher tariff would go into effect at once.

Replying to this suggestion, Mr. Lodge said that treaties which Japan has with all countries other than the United States expire within a very short time and that in negotiating new treaties that government has incorporated therein the "friendly nation" clause. He said further that Japan is about to undertake a new fiscal plan and to adopt a new general tariff law, but that she would be compelled to postpone her operation of these needed reforms for another year unless the United States showed its friendship by permitting the abrogation of the treaty with this country at the same time that treaties with other countries expired. He said that the effect of this refusal would be great loss of revenues to Japan, but of comparatively small benefit to the United States. Some sharp passages are said to have occurred between Messrs. Lodge and Hale, but the debates in executive sessions are never taken down.

After a long delay it was realized that ratification yesterday was impossible, and the senate adjourned. A radically different view of the Japanese treaty is held by those in the confidence of the state department who regard the position of Senator Hale as the result of a misapprehension. Three distinct benefits, they declare, will accrue to the United States by giving Japan the concessions desired in the way of a ratification of the proposed treaty by July 17 next and the omission of the immigration restriction from the treaty.

These advantages were enumerated as follows:

First—The United States will secure the perpetuation of the passport arrangement of 1907 through diplomatic notes, and therefore feels able to dispense with that stipulation in the treaty of 1894 regarding immigration which expressed a potential right that never was exercised. This stipulation, it was pointed out yesterday, will not impair the inherent and sovereign right of the United States to legislate on the subject of immigration should it so desire.

Second—The industrial and artistic as well as property rights of Americans will be protected.

The diplomatic exchange in recent years, covering the rights of American patents and copyrights, are embodied now in a treaty.

Third—The United States will continue to receive "favored nation treatment" in whatever revision of the tariff Japan may undertake in the future. It was in respect to the tariff that supporters of the state department particularly look issue.

Superfluous Hair

Why Not Shave It Off? If You Do It Right, It Does It Better Than Most Depilatories

You might just as well shave as use any depilatory which is to be applied to remove superfluous hair. This simply removes the surface hair; therefore the effect is the same as shaving, only the razor is more convenient and takes it off cleaner. Of course, it does not matter which way you do it; you only remove the surface hair, which will return stronger after each removal. The same applies to other worthless compounds and so-called "liquid curls." De Miracle is not like these; it is the only method that gives proof that it is absolutely non-poisonous, safe and sure. You are not asked to buy it on our BARK WORLD. It is the only preparation of the kind which is endorsed by physicians, surgeons, dermatologists, medical journals, prominent magazines and newspapers. Remember, the longer you use such treatments as those referred to above the stronger the hair will grow and the harder it will be to remove it. De Miracle is sold at all drug stores, including A. & J. Pollard Co., New York, simply saying you want this booklet, and it will be mailed, sealed, at once.

Note: All readers of this paper who are afflicted with superfluous hair growths are strongly advised to write for information concerning this wonderful method, which is endorsed by the World over by eminent authorities, who have made a lifelong study of this subject.

Another Presentation of Say That Japanese Are Friendly
"The Mikado"

"The Mikado," the comic opera presented by the pupils of the High school, was again given before a large audience last night in the school hall. The hall was packed to its seating capacity and the applause was frequent and hearty.

The performance received the heartiest praise from everybody present and the audience must have contained at least a hundred people from the towns that send their young people to the school. The ensemble was a real success, and it is possible that next year the pupils of the High school will give the Lowell people another operatic treat.

THE MOTH PESTS

The state is making vigorous efforts to destroy the moth pests, but unfortunately with little success. We cannot expect to exterminate the pests completely while they are allowed to multiply without disturbance in the woods of the suburban towns. Just as soon as the moths get able to fly they are carried to the cities where they cover buildings and trees, and lay the foundation for a future crop the following year.

Judging from present conditions, we are not any nearer the end of the moth pest now than we were five years ago, nor is there any reason to hope that we shall ever be able to destroy the pests by the present methods. The woods in the country towns must be taken care of as well as those in the large cities before these pests can be wiped out.

WHY NEGLECT CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS?

The examiners at the civil service examination, held at City hall the other day, remarked that the attendance was very small compared with that of other cities of about the same size of Lowell. This we understand is true in regard to civil service examinations generally.

It would seem that the people of Lowell are not fully awake to the opportunities offered them in these civil service examinations. If that be not the case, the reason must lie in the fact that they are not as well prepared as in other cities. We are not inclined to believe that the latter is the fact, rather it is their neglect to avail themselves of the opportunities offered.

We have civil service examinations for municipal, state and federal offices, and in all these, as a rule, the education required is not very extensive, but it demands thoroughness as far as it goes. While so many young men graduate from the high school and the commercial college, it would appear that these civil service examinations should be more closely looked after by the eligible who want positions. The trouble with many of those who are looking for positions is, that they look to others to help them and neglect the important work of helping themselves.

THE RECIPROCITY MEASURE

There is a good deal of opposition to the reciprocity bill from the trusts and combines that have managed to keep up prices during the past decade. The fishermen of Gloucester have raised a cry that their industry will be wiped out, but in reality it is the trust that is in danger. And what has the fish trust been doing with the people of New England under its high protective tariff? It has been limiting the supply of fish by reducing the number of fishermen and by holding a portion of the supply in cold storage in order to keep up the price to the people. By this policy it has given to the people cold storage fish and for their inferior article it has charged exorbitant prices. In fact the fish trust has endeavored to keep the price of fish on a level with those put in force by the beef trust on the ground that one trust has as good a right to swindle the people as another.

What is said of the fish trust in regard to extortion is equally true of the lumber trust that has put up the price of lumber to such an extent that building operations throughout New England are greatly crippled on account of the high cost of building material, and the cost of lumber in particular. It may be true that lumber is not quite so plentiful as it has been in former years, but if lumber were admitted free the supply would soon equal the demand, and the prices would be brought down to a reasonable figure in every city in New England.

There are hundreds of business buildings in every city that should be torn down and rebuilt; but the owners cannot see their way clear to rebuilding while the cost of material is so high. Thus not only in food products but in building operations are the people handicapped by the high prices made possible by an excessive tariff.

The reciprocity agreement offers the only remedy in the removal of these unnecessary tariff exactions so that competition will be reestablished and that people may be relieved from the extortions imposed by the trusts controlling not only food products but clothing and building material. In this way they place unnecessary barriers to progress throughout the country but particularly in the United States.

The republicans interested in protecting the trusts will fight against the adoption of this reciprocity measure, but President Taft is doing good work in pushing it ahead. The democrats in congress will assist him in overcoming all opposition, and if the reciprocity measure be not enacted by this congress it is understood that the president will call a special session to deal with the matter early in March. There is little probability that the act can be passed by the present congress owing to the opposition of the standpatters exalted through an influential color in the senate, including Senator Hale and others, who insist that reciprocity will injure the farming industry, the lumber industry and the fishing industry in the New England states.

The paper trust is also up in arms against the reciprocity scheme as the new arrangement would admit paper and wood pulp at a price much lower than at present prevailing. The object of the reciprocity measure will be defeated if the various trusts affected be allowed to influence the action of congress.

The reciprocity measure does not go far enough. We should have reciprocity not only with Canada but with other countries out of whose markets we are barred by retaliatory tariffs. The tariff should be so reduced that it would be impossible for manufacturers of steel rails to ship their products to China and sell them lower than in the home market; and it should also deal with the shoe industry in a manner that would make it impossible to sell the shoes made in Lynn or Brockton at a lower price in England than in the city of Boston.

The people of this country have been imposed upon by a lot of swindlers who have been licensed, as it were, by congress to practice these extortions upon the people. It is time this political bunco game were stopped.

SEEN AND HEARD

The Brockton Enterprise recently printed the following advice about giving news by telephone, which may be of assistance to persons who telephone items now and then, to the paper:

It seems to be more or less of an art, after all, to telephone facts over the wire so that they can be easily and promptly understood by the fellow who takes the story at the receiving end. There are many people who have the art down to a nicety. Here is the way they do it: They call for the Enterprise, get somebody on the wire, state who they are, announce first of all what the nature of the news is, so that if there is a special occasion to receiving the particular form of news he can be called to the phone; then they calmly and quietly go along with the story to the finish omitting no interesting details and telling all the facts. But there are a few who have the wrong idea. They call up the paper, and for a starter they fail to announce who they may be or what they are about to tell. Then they plunge at once into the story without giving the receiver a chance to get paper or pencil or catch any idea of what he is about to receive. Some of them have given a story to somebody else on the paper already, and they wish to add to it or change it. Without announcing what the story is they simply start off with "That was John Jones who was on the committee but Mary Carter." If the fellow receiving doesn't happen to be the one who took that story the next remark is, "What?" "Why, don't you know? I told all about it yesterday afternoon." Another hard one to handle is the speeder—the one who is trying to get the news in and quit in 30 seconds. It is usually a woman, and her speed headliner you moreover you don't know what she's saying before she chirps "Good-by" and starts to hang up the phone. Treat the telephone kindly, be reasonably slow, be sure the fellow you have on the phone has a dim idea at least of what your conversation is about; and you'll get a better story and he and everybody will be happier, and it will be a more generally intelligent performance.

"L'Opinion Publique" of Worcester, relative to the nomination of Mr. Joseph A. Legare to the postmastership of Lowell, quotes the following in its editorial column:

"If Mr. Legare is definitely nominated postmaster in Lowell, he will be the first French American to occupy a similar position in a city of as great importance as Lowell. Mr. Legare has retained his French name and this did not stop him from climbing both the political and social ladder."

PEOPLE OF NOTE
The first prosecution under the new police rules of Vienna against long hair took place in a Viennese district court recently. A good looking shop girl named Leopoldine Epstein had scratched the nose of a passerby in the street with the point of a pin which he described in court as being "as long as a spear," projecting from her hair. She was ordered to pay a fine of 40 cents, or, in default, to go to prison for 12 hours, the magistrate remarking that future offenders would be punished more severely.

It is interesting to know that there is a man still living who gazed on the face of the father of his country. This man is still in possession of his faculties and remembers well how that great man looked. He is this generation's only living link with the actual Washington. John Lane of the city of Washington, was not born until more than a quarter of a century after Washington died. The occurrence which makes this apparently impossible thing a fact was the opening of the tomb of Washington 74 years ago. At that time the body was moved from one tomb to another. The remains had been competently embalmed and the face remained as in life. When this congressional committee would visit it a bit of a boy. And while its members gazed awestruck on what they saw one of them raised the boy aloft, and he, too, looked.

George Washington, ere he died, realized that the vault which held the bodies of the dead members of his family and were destined to hold his own was inadequate. In his last will and testament he provided for the new tomb and the transfer was made 30 years after his death, or in 1837.

On the morning that the transfer was to be made the members of the committee had met at the bookstore of John Lane's uncle, and awaited the coming of the coaches that were to take them to Mount Vernon. Young

STOLEN GRIPS Were Recovered by Business Man

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Rev. Thomas Van Ness of Brookline, pastor of the Second church, Copley square, was the center of an exciting episode in the Back Bay station at 5.30 yesterday afternoon and for a time it looked as if he would lose the 6 o'clock train, which he planned to take for New York.

As he approached the ticket window, he laid his leather grip on the floor.
After purchasing his ticket he looked around for the bag and it was gone.
Mr. Van Ness hurried through the big waiting room but could see no one with it. Others in the station became interested and in few minutes there was a general hunt.

Suddenly a seedy looking man appeared carrying a bag. He was with a presumptuous looking man, who also carried a grip. The bag carried by the former was recognized by Mr. Van Ness as his property.

It appears that about 4.30 Edward
W. Harney, a business man of 223 West 48th street, New York, went into the Back Bay station to buy a ticket for the 6 o'clock train. He had an experience like that of Rev. Mr. Van Ness. He laid his bag down while he purchased a ticket, and when he looked for it found that it had disappeared.

Mr. Harney hurried out onto Dar-mouth street and walking down the street in the direction of Columbus avenue he saw a man hurrying off with his grip. Harney chased and overtaken the man. He grabbed the bag and gave the thief a well-aimed kick. Mr. Harney didn't care to prosecute, so he didn't bother turning him over to the police.

Strangely enough, Mr. Harney was just making his way to the station to board the train about 5.30 when he saw the same man hurrying down Dar-mouth street with a handsome leather bag. Stopping him Harney said:

"What, another?"
"This is my bag, all right, this time," the man replied.

"That may be so, but mine didn't belong to you," replied Harney. "You came back with mine and we'll make sure about this one."

The entrance of the two men created some excitement and a number of persons waiting for the train crowded about. Special Officer Patrick J. Mor-rissy of the railroad police made his way through the crowd and took the man in charge.

Mr. Van Ness identified the bag as his property and said that when its contents it was worth $50. The man who had the bag was turned over to the police of station 5 on the charge of larceny. He said his name is Joseph T. Gray, aged 63, and claimed to have no home.

"The police say that about 12.30 yesterday noon a bag belonging to H. L.
Springer of 35 North Court street, East River, was stolen from the Back Bay station under like circumstances and they believe Gray knows something about it."

SHOT HIMSELF Man Said He Would Make Sensation

MILTON, Feb. 23.—Carrying out his misunderstood threat "to make a sensation on the holiday," Edward Clune,
50 years of age, Adams street, East Milton, went outside his house yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and while standing on the sidewalk shot himself twice in the head with a revolver.

Members of the family heard the shots and remembering what he had said the previous day, rushed to the windows. When they saw his son, on the ground Mrs. Clune with her other children hurried to the street and then sent for medical aid. Before a physician arrived the man was dead.

The threat of "a sensation" was made by members of the family, and neighbors say that words were heard at that time when Clune brought out the revolver to see that it was in good working order.

The family, very reticent about the whole affair, say they thought little of the threat as they believed the man meant to celebrate the holiday by firing off his revolver.

No reason is given by the family for the suicide, except an intimation that financial matters may have made Clune despondent without cause.

Clune was a painter and with his wife, four sons and four daughters, moved only lately from South Boston to East Milton.

WILFRID LAURIER

Opposed to Annexation of Canada to the United States

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Hugh Guthrie, M. P., of Guelph, Ont., a member of the liberal party and a staunch supporter of the Laurier government, and James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, were the guests of honor last night at the Washington day celebration of the Ellicott club. Both spoke on the pending reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada. Mr. Guthrie said that he spoke with the sanction and approval of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and added:

"I state plainly and positively that there is in Canada no sentiment in favor of annexation to the United States. I do not know of one single public man in Canada who harbors such a thought or would countenance such a suggestion. Any dream, any wish or desire on the part of the people or the press of the United States that any political change, however slight, may in the future result from the present proposals, so far as Canada is concerned, must be eliminated absolutely from the discussion. Otherwise the judgment of Canada in regard to the matter will be plain, unmistakable and unalterable and may be expressed in your own characteristic vernacular—not for ours."

"However great might be the advantage to Canada, from the adoption of this arrangement, Canada must and will refuse it if in the slightest degree it tends to nullify our allegiance, to trust an devotion which Canada today reposes in the imperial crown of Great Britain. I do not for a moment suggest that this commercial arrangement will or can have such an effect. I do not believe it will now or hereafter."

"We must deal with absolute frankness with each other in regard to this phase of the subject and the frank and candid manner in which the president of the United States and the secretary of state have expressed themselves during the past week has been greatly appreciated in Canada."

"And let me add," said Mr. Guthrie, weighing his words carefully, "by way of confirmation, that the language I have used and the sentiments I have expressed upon the question of annexation, which some of your people and press have sought to drag into this discussion have the direct sanction and approval of the prime minister of Canada."

Secretary Wilson confined himself to a discussion of some of the benefits he believed would accrue to the people of both countries from the adoption of the agreement.

PROF. NASH

CRITICIZES MARRIAGE OF AMERICAN HEIRESSSES

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 23.—Ameri-

can heiresses who marry titled foreigners, the American quarters in foreign cities the game of football as played in this country, and politics, all came in for severe criticism at the hands of Prof. Henry S. Nash of the Episcopal theological seminary of Cambridge, Mass., during an address delivered at the annual meeting of the Maine Society of the Sons of the American Revolution yesterday.

The marriage of American girls to itled Europeans was characterized as "brutal barter and disgraceful to both sides" while American colonies abroad, the speaker declared to be "the most rotten in the world."

Football, Prof. Nash insisted, is dishonest. "Rule makers," he said, "get together in New York and formulate rules and then return to their colleges and teach how to violate them." Groton schoolboys visit Harvard, he said, and study the game, then return as coaches and corrupt the game. "I have been filled with unutterable shame" he declared in discussing politics, "at the disgraceful things that have happened here and brought our country into disrepute across the water. The trouble is we have been absent minded. We have got to get together for clean politics. The birth of a new democracy is coming on every side."

THREE ARRESTS

In Connection With a Train Robbery

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 23.—Three men have been arrested and more than $2000 in money and jewelry have been recovered as a result of the three days' search for the bandits who held up and robbed the Southern railway fast mail train at White Sulphur Springs last Saturday morning. The identity of the suspects still is unknown.

Following the capture of one of the robbers early Tuesday two other members of the gang were arrested yesterday. Nearly $1000 in cash and jewelry valued at between $500 and $600 were found on them. When handcuffed the robbers broke down and admitted their participation in the hold-up.

THETA DELTA CHI FRATERNITY
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Three hundred members of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity ended a three days' national convention last night with a dinner at the Hotel Astor. None but the members of the fraternity was allowed to enter the banquet room. Among the speakers was Gov. Dix, who is a member of the Beta chapter.

TO MAKE HAIR CLEAN AND GLOSSY

(From the Toronto Times)
"Your hair will grow in beauty and color, and brilliance and luxuriance, if you will stop drenching and rinsing it with soap and water and use only a dry shampoo powder, sprinkled on the head once a week and brushed thoroughly through the hair."

"More dry, dull, brittle and faded hair can be traced to too much moisture than to any other cause. A good shampoo powder will remove every particle of dust, oil and dandruff from the head, leaving the scalp clean, cool and refreshed and the hair glossy, soft and silky."

"To make a shampoo powder simply mix four ounces of thorax with four ounces of orris root. Thorax tones up the hair from root to tip, and you need use no other tonic."

GARDNER TRIAL

Prosecutor Nott Expected to Take the Witness Stand

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—What promises to be the final day of the trial of Frank J. Gardner on a charge of attempted bribery opened with Assistant Attorney Nott ready to put the former state senator through the ordeal of a searching cross examination. Gardner, testifying in his own defense just before court adjourned Tuesday, emphatically denied that he had tried to bribe Congressman Otto Poelker, then a state senator, to vote against the anti-race-track betting bill in 1908 or that he had told Assistant Dist. Atty. Elder of Brooklyn anything about race-track legislation at Albany. It was Elder's testimony before the Merritt commission of what he said Gardner told him about race-track bill bribery that started that end of the bribery investigation and led eventually to Gardner's indictment.

Prosecutor Nott indicated that he would recall Mr. Elder today in rebuttal to reiterate his story of the $500,000 bribery fund, which he declares Gardner told him about.

Mr. Nott also was expected to take the stand himself to refute part of the testimony of one of the defense's witnesses.

Justice Seabury notified counsel that the case must go to the jury today. It was arranged to complete taking of testimony at the first session and devote the afternoon to summing up.

KAISER GOING TO CORFU

Busy Men Keep ALLEOTONE in Their Office

ALLEOTONE is a concentrated liquid cell food composed of the very elements which compose the cells of your body. Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Grippe and all sicknesses due to lowered vitality caused by deficient cell material begin to yield to ALLEOTONE just as soon as the food which ALLEOTONE contains is conveyed by the blood to the places where it is required.

Sometimes the improper nourishment of your cells shows in other ways than colds or grippe. You feel "no good," your energy is gone, matters of moment demand attention, but you don't feel equal to them. In other words, you are not up to the normal. Since ALLEOTONE is a tonic absolutely without reactionary effect, it is especially beneficial during these periods of mental or physical exhaustion. Business men who have learned the value of ALLEOTONE in their homes also keep it in their offices, as a tonic to take whenever their work is proving too exhausting.

This renewed vitality is not artificial, any more than the strength which food brings to a starving man is artificial. The cells which are weakened by hunger for some necessary element of their composition is fed by ALLEOTONE, and quite naturally the feeling of lassitude passes away.

ALLEOTONE is absolutely harmless. You should keep it always on hand to cope with colds, feverishness and the feeling of being run down.

REV. FR. DENIZOT

Gave Banquet to Amateur Actors

The young men who recently presented "La Malediction" were given a fine treat last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Laroche, 216 Hudson street. The program consisted of a banquet, whist and musical selections, and the affair was given by Rev. Fr. Denizot, O. M. I., director of the play, as a token of appreciation of the good work rendered by the amateur actors.

At 7:30 o'clock the guests sat down to a banquet served by Caterer Edmond Berger, and the name of Berger is sufficient to know that the food was of extra quality and plentiful. Rev. Fr. Denizot presided over the festivities and after the repast he delivered appropriate remarks, thanking the young men for their success, and stated that the proceeds of the soiree after all expenses were paid, amounted to $275. These remarks were received with great applause. Several of the guests also made remarks, and then all proceeded to the music room where an enjoyable program was rendered, everyone present doing his share.

Later tables were arranged and a game of whist was played. Refreshments and cigars were served.

ANNUAL BANQUET FOR MEMBERS OF ST. LOUIS' CHURCH CHOIR

The annual banquet to the members of St. Louis' church choir was given last night in the convent hall in Bolsovert street. Thirty-two guests were present and all had a splendid time. The menu which was of the best kind was served by Caterer Edmond Berger. Mr. Oller J. David, choir-master, presided over the festivities. A varied entertainment program was rendered by the following: Misses Clemence and M. Simard, Alice Bratte, Marie Anne Bedard, M. Mayrand, L. Guilbeault, Mrs. O. J. David, Messrs. Arcole Brunelle, O. J. David, Emery C. Gaudin, Jules Morissette, Adolphe Bouchard. Also several selections by the choir and the Centralville quartet; Miss Ida Mongrain accompanied on the piano.

During the evening Rev. Fr. J. N. Jacques, pastor of the church, paid a visit to the singers and made brief remarks.

STRONG ATTACK

Made on the Japanese Government

TOKIO, Feb. 23.—The spread of anarchistic doctrine in Japan was the basis of an attack on the government in the diet today. Members of the opposition introduced a resolution censuring the government for having permitted outlawry to reach a point where an attempt upon the life of the emperor had been planned. The resolution was defeated by a large majority.

The debate revived the recent conspiracy which resulted in the execution of Denjiro Kotoku and his wife and ten other anarchists and the imprisonment of fourteen others. Premier Katsura outlined the efforts which were being made to prevent the growth of the movement.

THE FOURTH DEGREE

Lowell Men Advanced in the Knights of Columbus

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Hundreds of members of the fourth degree rank of the Knights of Columbus from all sections of New England assembled in Faneuil hall yesterday afternoon to witness the conferring of the degree, the highest in the order, on more than 250 candidates, the largest body that has ever gathered for that purpose in this city, with the exception of the first time it was given here, over 10 years ago.

At noon the district assembly, comprising representatives of various assemblies throughout the state, and the first ever to be held here, convened at the Boston City club. The meeting was called to order by Dr. Timothy Hanrahan, master of the degree for Massachusetts.

Nearly 500 members, he said, have been added in this state in the past six months.

One of the duties of the district assembly is to choose a committee to nominate three members, from which a master will be chosen by the supreme master. During this part of the business, Capt. D. J. Gorman, vice-supreme master for the province of New England, presided. James F. Gallagher of Newton, Michael J. Driscoll of South Boston and Owen C. Traigor of Malden were elected members of the committee to attend to this matter.

Charles F. Lyons of Boston, John H. Gordon of Jamaica Plain and Foster F. Hanley of Dorchester were chosen a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws. Rev. James J. McCarthy, state chaplain, made a short address of a congratulatory nature.

The degree work commenced about 3 o'clock in Faneuil hall.

The work was under the direction of Dr. Timothy Hanrahan, master, assisted by George H. Kelly, secretary; Rev. James J. McCarthy, chaplain; Capt. Daniel J. Murphy, marshal; Edward J. Brandon, D. The music was furnished by a quartet comprising William B. Brooks, John Z. Kelley, John D. O'Connor and James J. Flynn, with Paul Donovan as organist.

Among those prominent in the church and order who witnessed the ceremony were: Rt. Rev. Mgr. George J. Patterson of St. Peter and Paul's church, South Boston; Rev. John T. Mullen, D. C. ## WASHINGTON'S DAY

Was Pretty Generally Observed in This City

Yesterday a grateful country observed the anniversary of the birth of its father, George Washington, the one man credited with never having told a lie, and the greatest hero from the moral, earnest and patriotic standpoint ever born. Other countries have had their kings, but only one country had its George Washington and he was worth all the kings that ever happened.

The observance of the day was more or less general in Lowell, in churches, clubs and other places, but there was nothing in the way of observance that would be called elaborate.

The Elks Entertained
The hospitality of the Elks was never better demonstrated than it was last their commodious quarters in Middle street. There were about 400 present during the evening, whilst was enjoyed, there was an informal entertainment program carried out by local talent and players at the different theatres, refreshments were served and the affair proved to be a success in every particular.

The interior was beautifully as well as artistically decorated with the national colors, flags and greenery. The corridor was also decorated in appropriate manner.
Whist was started shortly after 8 o'clock and continued till 10 o'clock, when the entertainment program was opened. Pretty souvenirs were presented to each of the participants in the whist while the winners received beautiful prizes.
The following were the prize winners: Ladies, first, Miss Lena Lampleneau, 64 points; second, Miss Ella M. Burt, 55 points; consolation, Mrs. L. F. Lamson, 14 points.
Gentlemen, first, Charles J. McMahon, 57 points; second, James Gookin, 51 points; consolation, D. J. Hackett, 19 points.

The entertainment program opened with a selection by Hathaway's orchestra, Prof. Arthur J. Martel, leader; Donald Meek of the Donald Meek Stock Co. gave an excellent recitation of "The Life Boat Crew" in his own inimitable way, and James E. Donnelly gave imitations of Harry Lauder. Edward F. Shea contributed songs and Severin De Deyn gave recitations; and

St. John's Church.

The Parish Aid society of St. John's church held a bag social in the parish rooms last night. The affair took the form of a Washington party, and the rooms were prettily decorated with flags and statuettes of the "Father of His Country." The ladies of the society appeared in colonial costumes. Every person who entered the rooms presented a bag with coin of the realm in it. And each one gave as much as he saw fit to do.

The following miscellaneous program was given: Piano solo, Miss Jessie Ragan; tableau, Roscoe, Brannan and Dorthen Whiteley; duet, "Dost Thou Love Me Sister Ruth," Edward Moore and Martha Wilson; song, "Gather Round," Miss Helen Smith; duet, "Jack and Jill," Robert and Alexina Burns; song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Charles Ingalls. The sketch, in costume, "How the Story Grew," was delightfully given by Mrs. Charles Ingalls, Mrs. Thomas Riley, Mrs. K. J. Connell, Mrs. H. L. Whiteley, Mrs. Joseph Wilde, Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Edwards and Mrs. Fred Brannan. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunklee, Mrs. Deal and Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. George Parsons, Mrs. Willie S. Holt, Mrs. Jessop and Mrs. W. E. Robins poured.

The Boys' Brigade
The Boys' Brigade of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave a Washington's birthday entertainment last night in the vestry of the church, which was attended by a good sized audience. Exhibition drills by squads of the brigade provided one of the pleasing features of the evening's program. The first squad was under the command of Capt. Herbert H. Taylor, and three other squads under Corporal Ernest Hood, Carlos Taft and Raymond Fox, also did exceptionally good work. Songs by Master Emil Hartford, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss Eva Henderson, was an added feature, and an exhibition drill of a squad from Company G, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., under Sergeant Hotchkiss.

The members of the brigade presented a little sketch, entitled "An Acknowledgment." The characters and those who portrayed them were:

"Lieut. Mustard," Irving Snyder; "Sergeant Drill," William Mochrie; "Cyrenus Greene of Jayville," Albert Booth; "Hans Anheuser Pillsner Wurtzburger Hoffbraun, Jr.," Herbert Taylor; "Percy Harold Hooper Hooper," Rothwell Smith; "Michael J. O'Shaughnessy," Charles Barton; "Bolter," Frank Hocheller.

The playlet was well rendered and merited much applause.
Herbert Taylor is captain of the brigade, William Mochrie first lieutenant, and Irving Snyder second lieutenant. Sergeant, Carlos Taft, of G company, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., is drill master of the brigade.

The Washington Club
As usual the Washington club celebrated at its headquarters on Pierson street last night by a banquet, followed by addresses by a number of speakers, including James J. Kerwin, John C. Burke, Daniel J. Donahue and Joseph Smith, all of whom dwelt upon the personal character, the civil and military achievements of Washington. The set address of the evening was by Mr. Smith, who dwelt at length upon the career of Washington and the difficulties he had to overcome. The rooms were appropriately decorated, and the exercises, enlivened by the music of the Middlesex orchestra.

The People's Club
A large audience gathered at the People's club rooms in the Rutland building last night. Solon W. Stevens gave the address, taking George Washington as his topic.

Mr. Stevens made a most scholarly and entertaining address. He indicated the steps in the life of Washington, spoke of his military genius and dwelt enthusiastically upon his career as a statesman.

Patriotic songs were sung by Mrs. C. M. Williams, who delighted her audience. Mr. Stevens played her accompaniments.

A Delightful Affair
At least 150 people attended the annual social held last night in the old Sacred Heart school hall, under the auspices of the Holy Angels sodality of that parish.

The affair proved even more enjoyable than those of other years, and the evening was a delightful one in every particular. Besides an informal musical and literary program there were numerous games for the young women.

The program included the following numbers:
Opening chorus, by the sodality, "Holy Mary;" reading, "A Journey," Miss Nellie Lynch; solo, "You'll Come Back to Erin Some Day," Miss Irene Harkins; reading, "George Washington Jones," Miss Ellen Mahan; solo, "Just a Face in the Firelight," Miss Lucy Sharkey; reading, "Slister's Bean," Miss Katherine Kenney.

St. John's Church.

The Parish Aid society of St. John's church held a bag social in the parish rooms last night. The affair took the form of a Washington party, and the rooms were prettily decorated with flags and statuettes of the "Father of His Country." The ladies of the society appeared in colonial costumes. Every person who entered the rooms presented a bag with coin of the realm in it. And each one gave as much as he saw fit to do.

The following miscellaneous program was given: Piano solo, Miss Jessie Ragan; tableau, Roscoe, Brannan and Dorthen Whiteley; duet, "Dost Thou Love Me Sister Ruth," Edward Moore and Martha Wilson; song, "Gather Round," Miss Helen Smith; duet, "Jack and Jill," Robert and Alexina Burns; song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Charles Ingalls. The sketch, in costume, "How the Story Grew," was delightfully given by Mrs. Charles Ingalls, Mrs. Thomas Riley, Mrs. K. J. Connell, Mrs. H. L. Whiteley, Mrs. Joseph Wilde, Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Edwards and Mrs. Fred Brannan. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunklee, Mrs. Deal and Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. George Parsons, Mrs. Willie S. Holt, Mrs. Jessop and Mrs. W. E. Robins poured.

The Boys' Brigade
The Boys' Brigade of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave a Washington's birthday entertainment last night in the vestry of the church, which was attended by a good sized audience. Exhibition drills by squads of the brigade provided one of the pleasing features of the evening's program. The first squad was under the command of Capt. Herbert H. Taylor, and three other squads under Corporal Ernest Hood, Carlos Taft and Raymond Fox, also did exceptionally good work. Songs by Master Emil Hartford, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss Eva Henderson, was an added feature, and an exhibition drill of a squad from Company G, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., under Sergeant Hotchkiss.

The members of the brigade presented a little sketch, entitled "An Acknowledgment." The characters and those who portrayed them were:

"Lieut. Mustard," Irving Snyder; "Sergeant Drill," William Mochrie; "Cyrenus Greene of Jayville," Albert Booth; "Hans Anheuser Pillsner Wurtzburger Hoffbraun, Jr.," Herbert Taylor; "Percy Harold Hooper Hooper," Rothwell Smith; "Michael J. O'Shaughnessy," Charles Barton; "Bolter," Frank Hocheller.

The playlet was well rendered and merited much applause.
Herbert Taylor is captain of the brigade, William Mochrie first lieutenant, and Irving Snyder second lieutenant. Sergeant, Carlos Taft, of G company, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., is drill master of the brigade.

The Washington Club
As usual the Washington club celebrated at its headquarters on Pierson street last night by a banquet, followed by addresses by a number of speakers, including James J. Kerwin, John C. Burke, Daniel J. Donahue and Joseph Smith, all of whom dwelt upon the personal character, the civil and military achievements of Washington. The set address of the evening was by Mr. Smith, who dwelt at length upon the career of Washington and the difficulties he had to overcome. The rooms were appropriately decorated, and the exercises, enlivened by the music of the Middlesex orchestra.

The People's Club
A large audience gathered at the People's club rooms in the Rutland building last night. Solon W. Stevens gave the address, taking George Washington as his topic.

Mr. Stevens made a most scholarly and entertaining address. He indicated the steps in the life of Washington, spoke of his military genius and dwelt enthusiastically upon his career as a statesman.

Patriotic songs were sung by Mrs. C. M. Williams, who delighted her audience. Mr. Stevens played her accompaniments.

COL. ROOSEVELT

Is Able to Handle Intruders

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's facility in handling intruders and his presence of mind in emergencies were put to the test twice yesterday at the big meeting in the First Regiment armory, and in each instance he availed with the dexterity that brought applause from his audience what at first looked like embarrassing situations.

In his address at this meeting which was designed primarily as a word of counsel for the foreign-born citizens of Chicago, the former president took occasion incidentally to announce himself as an advocate of women suffrage. This perhaps was in compliance to Miss Jane Addams, who sat beside him on the platform, but the language the colonel used was unequivocal.

"Personally," he declared, "I am in favor of giving the franchise to all citizens, irrespective of sex."

The adventure of the stranger came just as he closed his address on "Good Citizenship."

Colonel Roosevelt had taken his seat and A. A. McCormick, who presided, had just taken to make an announcement, when a queer-looking individual, with a flowing beard, arose from one of the front seats and walked upon the platform where the speakers were seated.

"Are you the colonel?" he demanded, extending his hand and reaching for Colonel Roosevelt. "I'm an old soldier from Wisconsin. Just stop the program for a minute, will you? I want to say a word or two to this audience."

Colonel Roosevelt looked the man over for a second and then, declaring that he was harmless, smiled.

"No, no," he said, "not now. Just sit down here a minute," and he made room for the intruder beside him.

The man took the seat offered him. Mr. McCormick made his announcement and the audience sang a verse of a patriotic song. Then, while the audience was sitting down, the colonel got the stranger quietly off the platform.

The other incident occurred while he was in the middle of his address. He had just begun the sentence, "We must stand up boldly," when the chair on which one of the reporters was seated suddenly collapsed under him. The audience burst into a roar of laughter, in which Colonel Roosevelt joined.

After the reporter had readjusted himself, the colonel observed amid renewed laughter:

"I said stand up boldly, and not sit down," and went on with his talk.

HERE'S A SHAMPOO WORTH TRYING

"Much depends on what you use when shampooing," says Mac Martin, in the Los Angeles Times. "Great injury is often done the hair and scalp by employing harmful mixtures for this purpose, while a simple thing like canthrox almost works wonders in cleansing the hair and scalp."

"After a canthrox shampoo the scalp is soft and pliant and the hair will have regained its original lustre and softness and is easier to do up."

"Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teaspoon of hot water and shampoo the head well with this. Then rinse thoroughly and dry. You will be agreeably surprised at the result."

"While canthrox is not expensive, you should be careful to get an original package."

TRAIN HARNESS HORSES ON ICE.

Canadians Work Trotters and Pacers
From Time Snow Falls.

Those trainers of trotters and pacers who find difficulty in getting their charges ready for the early meetings of the grand circuit, which never opens until June is almost over, should go to Canada during the winter months and take a leaf from the experience book of their fellow horse-men of the north.

From the time the snow comes their trotters and pacers are kept at work, and by Christmas, when the ice racing season begins they are ready to go as many heats as are necessary to get the money. When the snow and ice disappear in the early spring the horses have a short letup, but the moment the half mile tracks are fit to drive on the work of preparation for the spring, summer and autumn campaign is resumed, the meetings on a majority of the tracks being scheduled to open on May 24, known throughout Canada as Victoria day.

Does the Horse Not Harm.

The fashionable trainers who find it necessary to spend the winter months at Memphis, Tenn.; Macon, Ga., or in California would probably be afraid to subject their pets to the supposed rigors of the Canadian climate, but the trainers of the northwest say that the cold, bracing atmosphere and the short, sharp work on the snow or ice are beneficial to the horses reared there and point to The El, General H. and other star performers as proof that the argument is sound. There is one thing certain, when the grand circuit opens the horses from all parts of Canada are as fit as those nurtured in the south and often better.

For ice trotting the horses are, of course, so shod that there is little chance for a mishap. There are cakings of razor edge sharpness to hold the horse firmly on the snow or ice, and these boots confidence to an unusual degree. They are placed one at the toe crosswise and one on either flange, running lengthwise at the heel. As the trotter or pacer marches over the frozen surface of the road or track these cut with a sharply defined "cheep, cheep," at each step, and the sound of a bunch of horses racing is inspiring.

Purses Make It Worth While.

The ice meetings arranged throughout Canada have sufficient money added to make it worth while training and racing a good horse. The purses and stakes at Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, are especially substantial, and the Americans who have crossed the border expecting easy game have invariably been surprised at the caliber of the horses. At Ottawa the course is on the Ottawa river, and thousands of enthusiasts crowd the inclosure. Speculation is unrestricted, and many thousands of dollars change hands during the meetings. At Montreal and some other points the horses race over a half mile course which has been especially prepared. The surface is scraped until a bed of ice or hard snow is secured, and this in turn is sprayed and sprinkled till the desired footing is obtained. Comfortable quarters with every accommodation for man and beast are always provided, and the horses are rubbed dry in stalls where the temperature is about the same as would prevail in the open in June. Naturally great care is taken that none of them catches cold, and the drivers are in their seats before the doors are opened.

Scoring Is Very Brief.

There is no nonsense on the horses are out upon the track, as all are anxious to get away. The scoring, therefore, is not tedious. When the horses appear a bell rings, and those who have been buying pools or patronizing the refreshment booth come trooping through the doors and take their positions in the cheerless grand stand. They are warmly clad, many of them wearing coats of beaver or raccoon fur, with here and there a man who wants to be unusual and whose coat is of seal. Some of them are bright with multicolored sashes, and this touch of metropolitanness recalls the early days of the voyager whose scarf was his pride. The drivers are wrapped as snugly as the spectators, and zero weather has apparently no terrors for anybody connected with the sport.

FREAK ATHLETES WILL FIGURE IN COMING MEETINGS

FROM BASEBALL
TO THE OPERA.

By TOMMY CLARK.
MULTITASKED athletes are on the warpath. In fact, they have been for some time, and if fortune permits they will figure in coming meetings this season. Recently Basilio Ferro, the well known one legged runner of North Bay, Canada, challenged any one legged runner in Ontario or Canada to a race from five to ten miles, with a side bet who had lost his leg most recently, because it was considered that the other had an advantage in being more accustomed to running on one leg. The major won.

The challenge also calls to mind the number of men who have achieved prominence in the athletic world despite serious disqualifications. It dispenses of the old idea that to be successful an athlete must have the perfect of the world will be sought for. John Haskings, the one armed champion of Great Britain, is planning to visit America next season and is anxious to meet Charles Hyde of Wichita, the one armed player who competed in the recent western amateur championship at the Homewood club, near Chicago. Judge Shields of Omaha is another one handed golf star.

New York has two well known single arm players. They are Arthur S. Lyons, professional of the Briarcliff club of Ossining, N. Y., and Dr. P. A. Morrow, amateur of the Richmond County Country club, Staten Island, New York. The Essex County Country club of New Jersey has a one armed caddie, Louis Angele, who is becoming formidable.

England has a high class one legged cricketer, Lunt of the Knotty Ash Cricket club, who is good enough to hold his place against the competition of athletes who have all the parts with which nature endows mankind.

When playing he is usually assigned to keep the wicket. With a crutch under one shoulder he supports himself without apparent discomfort, and once he gets his hands on the ball it is a sure catch. He is really remarkably agile in the duties of the position and stumps many a batsman by his speed. E. H. Adams, New York Athletic club, is a name that frequently figures in the swimming records. Adams has won so many events in competition with club members that now he is called on to represent the N. Y. A. C. in matches with other organizations. Adams is a cripple. Some hip trouble shortened his left leg, and he walks with a decided limp, but otherwise he is a notable specimen of manhood.

Season before last Chicago university had a one armed guard in the football team, and he was so good that no opponent dared take any liberties with him. On the Pacific coast there is a one legged tennis player who more than holds his own with some of the cracks.

Philadelphia has a crack one armed pitcher in Sam Griffith. Sam lost his left arm many years ago, yet with the right alone he has been able to earn an excellent living. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Americans, thought enough of Griffith to give him a trial some years ago, but he was not quite fast enough for big league company.

of from $100 to $200. No one accepted the bet yet, but he may be taken up shortly.

The above challenge will remind veteran sportsmen of a one legged race that took place years ago in Ottawa between a Major Strutfield and a gentleman named Jarvis. Crutches were admissible according to the agreement of this race, but artificial legs were barred.

There was a handicap for the man feet body. For instance, there is Albert Sutton, the armless billiardist.

He has appeared all over the country and has played the best of the two armed champions on even terms and has only had to yield to men in the front rank. Sutton has been playing for many years, and yet he has only two stumps, both arms being off above the elbow.

The day also is not far distant when the title of one armed golf champion

John Haskings, One Armed Gaffer.

Sammy Strang Has Caruso Craze and Is Studying in Paris.

Can any one imagine Sammy Strang Nicklin, the man who took care of the second sack at Oriole park last season, hitting .300 or better in a squad of seasoned chippers like Caruso? Well, that's just what the once famous ball player intends doing next season. Sam, who has always been conceded to be one of the best voiced players that ever sang a lullaby to an umpire, has been stung by the singing bug, and the lure of the Wagner stuff has got the best of him.

Sam is going behind the footlights next year as one of the tribe that every time it lets out a wail has a breeze from the Canary Islands sounding like the clatter of tin pans. It's goodbye to the diamond this season and every other season for Sammy Strang. Sam, at the present time is far away from the town in which he was to have played during the coming summer months, which, by the way, was Montgomery, Ala.

Sam just now is over in Paris, where some of the fighters are now headed, studying up the best way to hit high C without whiffing out every time he steps to the pan. In the latter announcing his intention to forsake the plaudits of the fans and seek recompense in a more artistic atmosphere Strang-Nicklin drives home the fact that his voice has been plowed and cross harrowed and is now in the cultivation stage of development. With scientific irrigation and a diet of throat lozenges he hopes for an engagement in a minor league opera company before he is much older.

In due time he expects to chirp $47 in fast company. If he fails we may hear him in vogue, advertised as the "sweet voiced minstrel" who has the nerve to sing his own compositions—a la Doc White.

The advent of Strang-Nicklin in opera brings to mind some of the players who have achieved distinction after quitting the diamond. Prominent are Governor John Tener of Pennsylvania, one of the round the world baseball tourists; John M. Ward, the New York attorney; A. G. Spalding, head of the house of Spalding; Mike Donlin, who married Mabel Hite and made good as an actor; Garland Stahl, the Chicago banker; Meldor Jones, the Oregon lumber baron, and many others who acquired a competence in baseball and used it to "advance" in business or professional life.

The number of wealthy men in baseball today would surprise many if names and fortunes could be secured. For instance, Frank Chance with his California orange groves, Hans Wagner with his steel plant, Fred Clarke with his ranch, Roger Bresnahan with his commercial interests, Napoleon Lajoie with his farm, home and fat bank account, Cy Young with his big farm, are all rated as men of wealth. And there are many others who have saved their money and invested it to advantage.

RUNS MARATHON FOR SIDE OF BACON.

Demara, the Greek, Surprises Alaska Camp
by Ability to Run Grueling Race.
Now Challenges World.

"Will you run a marathon race for a side of bacon?" asked a miner at Fairbanks, Alaska, of a little Greek who had been working in the camp for some months. Evidently the miner thought that all Greeks were natural born marathoners. At that time bacon was mighty precious stuff in the far north, even more valuable than were gun drops.

Nick Demara declared he was a marathoner, and within a few minutes he started out to run the twenty-six miles. That was the first bacon that Demara brought home, but when the miners saw that they had a distance runner in the camp they sent "outside" and brought in a couple of "pro" runners. Against them Nick proved a winner in every race, and in a short time he was possessed of a small fortune.

There was a Jap in Fairbanks who could run a bit when the occasion demanded, and he was matched to run against the Greek. Nick defeated him by a few miles and then decided to come "down below" and get some races with the best we have here. By the time he had reached the decision that he was a world beater the winter had set in, and there were no boats leaving from the camp in which he was located. Naturally there was nothing for Nick to do but "hoof" it out. So Valdez was 360 miles over the soft snow, but Demara made it in record time.

He arrived in New York, looking for the chance to run against the best in the world. "I've gone the marathon distance on a track twenty-four laps to the mile in 2 hours 51 minutes," said Demara.

5000 JAPANESE THE FIFIELD WILL

Celebrated Washington's Birthday Was Allowed by Judge McIntyre at Honolulu

HONOLULU, Feb. 23.—Five thousand Japanese joined in a lantern parade in celebration of Washington's birthday. Speeches of friendship were made by the Japanese consul and Gov. Frear.

The demonstration followed a carnival held under the auspices of the Mystic Order of Shriners and the Order of Elks. The Japanese ended their procession in front of the grounds where the Elks were holding a fete.

ARMY AND NAVY

Must be Kept Strong, Says
Archbishop Ireland

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 23.—Archbishop John J. Ireland in an address before the Creve Coeur club of Peoria on the anniversary of Washington's birthday took opposite views from those of Andrew Carnegie and the forces which have been working toward universal peace.

"Has the day come," said Archbishop Ireland, "of such eminent proponents of the principle of arbitration that a great nation such as the United States of America may safely turn all its swords into plowshares and all its spears into sickles? No one will make the affirmation.

"No, the day of assured and lasting international peace has not arrived, it ever, ambitions and pride of nations permit it to arrive. Today the nation that disunites its ships of war and disbands its soldiers puts itself in danger of gross humiliation; if not fatal disaster. Today America is respected by its sister nations—it is respected because also it is feared. Peace, America invokes; but to be the more sure of peace America must be ready at a moment's notice to summon to its defense an army and a navy to whom defeat is impossible."

BIG CHURCH BELL FRENCH WARSHIP

To be Sent to Troy to Is On Rocks Off Scilly be Recast Islands

The large bell which hung in the belfry of the Congregational church in Tewksbury for years, and summoned the parishioners to service, and also tolled during the funeral of one of the departed members of the church was removed from its place in the tower today by Contractor James H. Hickey of this city, and nine of his men. The work of lowering the bell was a delicate one and considerable skill and carefulness were required.

The bell is to be shipped to Troy, N. Y., where it is to be recast. The bell weighs 1200 pounds and the metal in it is considered the best bell metal in the country and is worth about 52 cents per pound.

A few years ago the bell cracked, but it still retained its sweet tone. Recently, however, a piece dropped out and it was deemed advisable to send it away to be recast.

The inscription on the bell reads: "The living to the church I call, and to the grave I summon all." This is the second bell that has hung in the church belfry. The first one was smaller and was taken out some years ago and the bell which was removed today was substituted. At one time the tongue of the bell dropped out and it was necessary to drill holes in the metal and put in an extra plate in the hanger.

The people of Tewksbury will miss the sweet sound of the bell until it is returned.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The old French warship Richelieu, which for a fortnight has been drifting about, a derelict dangerous to navigation, found port today on the rocks off the Scilly Islands. The craft was sighted by the lifesaving crews who first thought that a trans-Atlantic liner had gone aground, but when a lifeboat reached the scene the crew recognized the French fighter.

The Richelieu was being towed to Holland, where she was to have been broken up when two weeks ago in a gale she tore loose from her tugs. A few days ago she was reported as sighted in the track of trans-Atlantic liners 160 miles west of Queenstown.

BOARD OF TRADE

WANTS REGULATION OF OUT-DOOR ADVERTISING SIGNS

Mr. John H. Murphy, secretary of the board of trade, will go to Boston tomorrow to appear in favor of a bill regulating outdoor advertising signs. The petition, which was presented by Edward W. Hartman of Boston, secretary of the Massachusetts Civic League, gives full power to the mayor and board of aldermen or selectmen, to regulate the outdoor advertising, that is, to select spots in cities or towns where outdoor advertising can be done, if the petition goes through it will certainly do away with the nasty billboards now decorating the many cities of the state.

The petition will be brought up before the committee on local affairs, scheduled to meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the state house in Boston.

PRESIDENT PIERCE

Denounced as a Traitor in the New Hampshire Legislature

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 23.—Hisses were mingled with applause in the house of representatives yesterday as Franklin Pierce, the only son of New Hampshire who ever reached the high office of president of the United States, was denounced as "a traitor to his country."

The bitterness of a controversy which has divided the state for more than half a century was revived as a result of the report of the committee on public improvements upon a bill to appropriate $25,000 for a statue to Pierce in the state house grounds. The majority reported against the bill, while a minority report favored it.

After a spirited debate, the house adopted the minority report by a vote of 144 to 129 and the bill was sent to the committee on appropriations.

Roger W. Pillsbury of Manchester was the principal opponent of the bill and during his attack he declared that the birthday of George Washington is a poor day upon which to propose to erect a monument to the memory of a traitor to this country.

An uproar followed, in which applause and hisses were about equally divided.

Attacks of almost equal violence on Pierce were made by Moreau of Manchester and Richardson of Claremont, the latter declaring that Pierce's memory is "a lasting disgrace to New Hampshire." The bill was vigorously supported by Keeler of Concord, who gave a comprehensive review of Pierce's life, record and achievements.

by Abner of Concord, Preston of New Hampton, Shannon of Lacombe, and Sibby of Manchester.

The morning session was featured by the first partisan debate of the session. The committee on judiciary introduced a bill dividing the city of Manchester into 14 wards instead of 10 as at present and recommended its reference to a special committee recently appointed to apportion representation to the legislature on the basis of the census of 1910. Democratic leaders claimed that the bill was a gerrymander and tried to have it referred to the Manchester delegation acting as a special committee. The republican speakers practically admitted the political nature of the measure, but shoved through its reference to the designation committee, 185 to 119.

A dozen new bills were introduced including a very important measure drafted by the judiciary committee for a public service commission to replace with much greater powers the present railroad commission. The commission is to consist of three members, appointed by the governor for six-year terms at a yearly salary of $4000. The bill goes to the committee on appropriations.

One member of the committee on education presented a minority report in favor of a bill to do away with the office of state superintendent of public instruction and substitute a state board of education of five members. The matter was made a special order for Thursday morning.

RUSSIAN BANDITS

To be Electrocuted During the Week of March 5

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—The two Russian bandits, Wassili Ivanowski and Andrei Ipson, who terrorized Lynn on the morning of June 25, 1910, and who shot down the bag grader and then came a sensational flight through the business section of the city. There was a running fight with police officers until the bandits were finally surrounded at High Rock. One of the bandits, known as "Joe," was killed and the other two gave themselves up.

At the trial an attempt was made to show that "Joe" did the shooting. The two men were convicted at the last term of the Essex county criminal court.

CAPTAIN COLLINS DOW ARRESTED

Has Filed Petition in He is Charged With Bankruptcy Scheme to Defraud

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Captain Charles Glen Collins, a retired officer of the Cameron Highlanders of the British army and former husband of Miss Nathalie Schenck, a society woman of New York and Newport, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States court today. Captain Collins gives his liabilities as $114,905 and assets as $833,750. The social sets of England and this country were keenly interested in the wedding of Miss Schenck and Captain Collins in 1906. Three years later Miss Schenck obtained a divorce.

Collins today said that he had been expending a great deal of his time and money in the last two years trying to reorganize a consolidation of marbled properties in Vermont. Delay in the process, he said, had made the creditors impatient and they had threatened to bring suit.

"Consequently," Collins said, "I have thought it wisest to file a petition as I shall then be free of suits, and able to work in an unrestricted manner with the help of my friends in Scotland and this country to raise the requisite capital. I believe that my capital will eventually enable me to pay my creditors one hundred cents on the dollar."

THOS. F. GARVEY

OBJECTS TO DRAWING OF SCHOOL LINES

Thomas F. Garvey, a resident of West Centralville, is somewhat perturbed over the report that the primary grades in the Greenhalge school are to be done away with. He says the matter has been talked up, quite considerably and he says he is not the only one to object to it. Mr. Garvey says it has not been officially stated that the school will close the grades in question, but he feels pretty sure that the intention looks that way at the present time.

The Lakeview avenue school is full at the present time and Mr. Garvey says that the school lines have been badly drawn. He cited a case of a boy living directly across the street from the Greenhalge school who had to go to the Billings street school because of the badly drawn lines. He says the lines were drawn on a basis of population, not of convenience.

CHILD LABOR LAW

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 23.—An amendment to the new child labor law which went into effect the first of this year was passed by the senate in concurrence today. The amendment makes all children at work in mills prior to Jan. 1 exempt from taking the educational test provided by the new law and therefore allows a large number of children who would be legally disqualified to remain at work.

A varied musical program which greatly pleased the guests was rendered by the following: Evelyn quarter, Thomas Savage, John Maloney and Philip Mulcahey; Miss Mineau and Miss McInerney accompanied on the piano.

The party broke up at a late hour, when all those present extended a vote of thanks to the organizers of the affair, who were the following: Misses Nora McInerney, Mary Maloney, Helen Savage, Ellen Mulcahey, Matilda Fleming, Alice O'Neill and Mary Whelton.

STRIKE IN BOSTON

TAXI-CAB DRIVERS ARE STILL OUT

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—The strike of the 15 taxi-cab drivers, who went out in a body a few days ago, continued unabated today and the cabs of the company, including two score of horse drawn vehicles, were idle. Officers of the Boston Taxi-Cab Co. believe the strike will soon be settled.

The strike does not extend to two other taxi-cab companies so that the general public was not greatly inconvenienced.

The company officials claim that the action of the men is unfair and the company simply desired to rid itself of undesirable employees.

GERALDINE RUSSELL

GERALDINE RUSSELL WITH THE OPERA HOUSE STOCK CO.

Playing at Opera House Relates Strange Experience

Miss Geraldine Russell, who is performing at the Opera House with the Thompson-Flynn Stock Co., has quite a theatrical career, although she is not fond of relating her many experiences. When approached by a Sun representative, who was anxious to know about her theatrical life, she first evaded the questions put to her, but finally agreed to give a few facts.

Miss Russell, who is a handsome looking young woman, had her first theatrical experience with amateur dramatic clubs performing for church benefits. This was in Minneapolis, Minn., where she was born and brought up. She made such a success of it, that her many friends urged her to accept an offer that was made to her by the manager of "Oliver Twist." After a short length of time, she was assigned the title role in the latter play, which she readily mastered.

After acquiring considerable experience in the new life, Miss Russell accepted an engagement with the Davis Stock Co. in Chicago. Miss Russell also played with the following companies: Monte Cristo, The James Kyrle McCurdy Co., in the Old Clothes Man, Pedro the Italian, Robins Stock Co., Bennett & Moulton, and several others, finally to play with the Thompson-Flynn Stock Co., now playing at the Opera House, and playing the role of "Girls," in which Miss Russell assumes the role of "Kate West, Free Lance Writer," and she plays it well, too.

Miss Russell has had quite a number of thrilling experiences while traveling. One of the most astonishing, for she went from coast to coast and performed in hundreds of cities. One of these experiences was in the state of Pennsylvania some eight years ago.

It was in a small town near Scranton. Miss Russell was then with the Bennett-Moulton Co. The members of the company were waiting at the railroad station for a train, when a stranger approached one of the party, named "Surly," and asked him what the trouble was, that he looked ill. "I am sick with small pox," answered Surly. Nothing more was said about it, and the company boarded the train. After traveling a couple of hours, the company landed in another small town, where they had to stay over night. They went to the first hotel, but were refused admittance, for the town officials had been notified by telegraph that a member of the company was suffering with small pox. The party proceeded to the next place but were received in the same way. Finally they struck the best hotel of the town and were admitted. Hardly had they begun eating a well earned meal than the police put in an appearance and ordered them out. The only place for shelter was the railroad station, and they made for it. The company was composed of 27 people, including eight women and a one-year-old baby. They stayed in the station over night, and then were quarantined in an old car, while the sick man by mistake was confined to a first class car. Well the company was thus stranded, guarded by the militia for three days.

Strange to say none of the company was bothered with the disease, as the answer made by Surly was intended to scare off a curious questioner. Nevertheless the company disbanded to reorganize some time later.

Miss Russell likes her business and devotes all her energy to it. She is evidently a conscientious worker and she casually remarked that a good many people imagine that play acting is mere fun, but it is work, and hard work for those who want to excel. Excellence is rarely attained without hard work and in this respect the dramatic art is no exception.

"GIRLS"

Tonight and for the remainder of this week, afternoon and evening, "Girls," Clyde Fitch's best comedy, will be presented by the Thompson-Flynn Stock company, at the Opera House. As played originally, "Girls," was a success for one whole year at Daly's theatre, New York, and is a particularly good selection for the second week of what promises to be a highly successful stock season in this city.

"Girls," is a comedy of the new school, noted for its strikingly original lines and situations and the author called for staging with a view to realism that has seldom been equalled. Fitch was noted for his gift of observation, his feeling for the surface texture of life, his habit of keeping his eyes open, not only in the theatre, but out of it, and was able to make his public see these same interesting characteristics of every day humanity by the magic power of his pen. "Girls" is a clean, refreshing play that makes one happier for having seen it. Next week "The Lion and the Mouse," will be the bill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

It would be difficult to find a more novel or sensational act than the Boston cho Busters, who are appearing at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week. The act carries a company of 10 people and a troop of four spirited horses, and there is every variety of rough riding, roping and broncho busting imaginable. It is taken right out of real western life and nothing like it has ever been seen on a Lowell stage before.

The Glendora quartet has returned after a long absence and presents a novel and entertaining act filled with tuneful songs of every variety. These young singers have improved since their last appearance here and are unquestionably one of the best quartets in vaudeville today.

Then there is Charley Harris. Mr. Harris is a talented character comedian with an amusing monolog and a screamingly funny "makeup." "Rustus Brown" is a colored dancer with most unusually nimble feet, who challenges anybody in Lowell to beat him at his own game. Rustus will meet all comers on Friday night at 8:40 o'clock. Miss Estelle Adams is a dainty soloist with an excellent repertoire.

The moving pictures are all new and of the daylight variety. A continuous performance is presented daily from 1 o'clock.

Lawyer J. H. Guilford, supreme chief of the French American Foresters, was tendered a fine reception by the members of Court Josephine, No. 5, P. F. of A., of Woonsocket, R. I.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Rich with pathos and humor, tears and laughter, a dash of old fashioned melodrama, and a moral or two, sugar coated, so that they are pleasant to take, are delightfully blended in "The Girl of the Golden West." The play touches upon a condition which has prevailed throughout the history of mankind, or at least as far back as we have any authentic records—"what a woman will do for the man she loves."

While the scenes and incidents of the play pertain to the past, the exposition of the lesson fits all times, and hence the production is entitled to be called a real play, a thing of more than evanescent interest, and there is no question that it is capable of doing good. The action centres about a road agent with a fondness for other people's money, and "The Girl" who runs a saloon on Cloudy Mountain, Cal., during the days of the gold fever in the late forties. How "The Girl" labors unceasingly to right a great wrong, force her lover, and put him back again on the straight and narrow path, nearly wrecking her own life in her heroic efforts, is most vividly portrayed.

Severin DeDeyn is seen in the part of the road agent, and Miss Carol Arden in the part of "The Girl," and both artists make the characters seem not stage creations, but reality. The members of the supporting company enthusiastically aid the stars, with the result that an attractive performance is given. Only two more days remain to see this beautiful production, as presented by the Donald Mack Stock Co. with Severin DeDeyn at this popular little playhouse. Ever since the opening Monday afternoon, there have been throngs to see this romantic play, and all have declared that this is the best drama of its kind seen in the city of Lowell.

Next week, "Charlie's Aunt."

THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons shows as its feature subject the powerful domestic drama staged by the Biograph company, entitled "The Diamond Star," and a better or more interesting feature has not been shown in many a day. The husband's infatuation for a more brilliant society woman than his stay-at-home wife nearly leads him wrong, but just in time an accidental prank of a neighbor's child sets every thing right again. "Whitlie's Double" is a really funny comedy, and a thrilling western subject, "Lieut. Scott's Narrow Escape," will please the lovers of excitement. The musical program is excellent, and the whole program to be seen only at the Theatre Voyons.

Man Was Before Judge Hadley on Vagrancy Charge

Alphonse P. Nichols, a respectable looking man of about 60 years of age, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with being a vagrant, and although he entered a plea of not guilty, after Captain Atkinson of the police department had given testimony it looked as though the defendant was going to receive a sentence to the state farm, the usual sentence imposed upon vagrants. Nichols, however, told a story which appealed to the judge and, feeling that the man might be telling the truth, the court decided to look into the matter, and as a result Judge Hadley called Nichols into court and recognized the defendant as a one-time prosperous tailor in Brunswick, Me. The recognition was mutual, and when the defendant told Judge Hadley that the man was an honest and industrious person the man was released on condition that he return to his home in Brunswick.

According to the testimony offered by Captain Atkinson, Nichols entered the police station last night and said he had no money, no friends and no place to go, and that he was tired and wanted to be put up for the night. The request was granted, but when Nichols awoke this morning instead of being allowed to go his way he found that a charge of vagrancy had been preferred against him.

Nichols testifying in his own behalf said he was born and brought up in Brunswick, Me., where he lived until about three months ago. He was a tailor in that place and said he conducted a place of his own for 30 years. He had a good home but his wife died and later when his daughter married and left home he went to New York to either get work or enter into business on a small scale for himself. Upon reaching the metropolis he found that there was little doing in his line and he went from city to city and finally landed in Worcester. His condition was such that he had to appeal for aid and was given a ticket of entrance to the state hospital at Tewksbury.

After being treated at Tewksbury he was put out to do work, but found that he was unable to perform the duties and Tuesday he left the institution and walked to Lowell. Last night he said his feet were so sore that when he reached the police station he decided to seek lodging for the night.

Judge Hadley took an interest in the man's story and knowing that Associate Judge Frederic A. Fisher was a former resident of Brunswick sent for him, and when the latter arrived and questions were asked, Judge Fisher informed Judge Hadley that so far as his story of his life in Brunswick was concerned the man was telling the truth. Nichols said he knew Judge Fisher.

"Seeing that you have told the truth, I want to know if you will go back to Brunswick if I allow you to?" asked Judge Hadley.

"I will go back just as soon as I can," was the answer.

Nichols was figuring on where he was to get the money to get back home when Judge Hadley interposed and said: "Never mind worrying about your fare, I will see that you get back to Brunswick all right."

Nichols with a broad smile on his face thanked the court and Judge Fisher, and then held a conference with Probation Officer Slattery, and in a few minutes he was on his way to the depot to catch a train.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

WAS ATTACKED BY LAWYER

PEABODY

BOSTON, Feb. 25.—Christian Science was attacked by Frederick W. Peabody, an old antagonist and an attorney of this city, in a hearing today before the legislative committee of public health on bills introduced by Mr. Peabody compelling all practitioners to register with the state board of registration in medicine. Mr. Peabody declared that Christian Science had never made a real cure and that it was using religion as a cloak for fraud. He said that it was only practiced for money and that if there were no fees in connection with it there would not be six practitioners in the state.

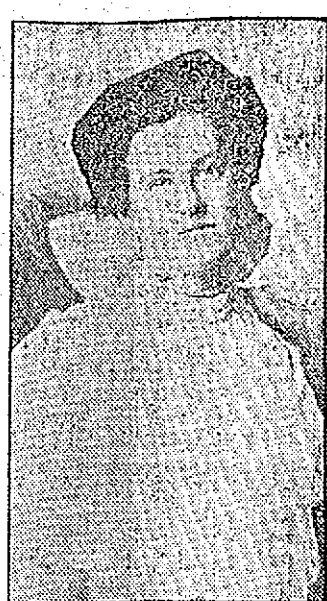

Mr. Peabody closed his argument with an attack on Alfred Farlow of the publication committee of the Christian Science church. The representative to the bills were heard at the afternoon session.

GRECIAN DANCES

Fine Entertainment by Children of Mary of Immaculate Conception

The Grecian dances given by the Children of Mary of the Immaculate Conception parish in Associate hall last night was the greatest event of the season. It surpassed the famous Colonial party conducted by the young girls last year and was enjoyed by an audience that crowded the hall. The affair was under the direction of Miss Goodman of Boston and the fifty young women who took part in the dances acquitted themselves most creditably. The hall was beautifully decorated and the old Grecian idea was carried out. This feature, never attempted here before, was given in such charming fashion as to elicit wonderment from those who have asked of entertainments in the usual order.

For months this corps has been rehearsing the dances under the direction of Miss Katherine Goodman, and the constant hard work showed itself in the grace of the performers. The dancers came into the hall marching from the Knights of Columbus rooms. The march was maintained for a time, the participants finally dividing into long lines and starting one of the several graceful numbers.

FOUND GUILTY

Remington Convicted on a Charge of Manslaughter

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—The confession of William R. Remington that he shot Max Sorokin in the latter's store in this city on July 31 last, while he, Remington, was under the influence of a drug was believed by a jury in the superior court today returned a verdict of manslaughter today. Remington told the authorities at the state hospital at Tewksbury that he entered Sorokin's store with the idea of trying to sell the latter a revolver. Remington said he had been using morphine and cocaine freely and was very nervous. Sorokin screamed when he saw the revolver and Remington said he fired twice, not knowing what he was doing. Remington will be sentenced later.

SENTENCED TO JAIL

Frederick Mencini Charged With Carrying Loaded Pistol

Frederick Mencini, who appeared in court Monday morning charged with drunkenness and carrying a loaded pistol, was placed on trial. He was represented by James Stuart Murphy and changed his plea from that of not guilty to guilty. Mr. Murphy informed the court that the man was drunk at the time and did not realize what he was doing. J. Joseph O'Connor appeared upon the court the seriousness of the offense, especially when the man was drunk.

Patrolman John J. Sullivan testified that the man got drunk last Saturday afternoon and during the early part of the evening threatened to shoot a number of people. He found Mencini in Lakeview avenue, placed him under arrest and upon searching the man found a dangerous looking revolver. Mencini was found guilty and sentenced to four months in jail. He appealed and was held under $400 for the superior court.

Serious Offense
John McDougall was charged with attempting to break and enter the building of Henry A. Lemaitre with intent to commit larceny therefrom, and in so doing broke a pane of glass. McDougall, who is but 21 years of age, is now on probation from the superior court on a case of breaking and entering, but he denied that he was guilty. At the request of the government the case was continued till Saturday. The defendant being held under $500 for his appearance at that time.

Charged With Larceny
Angelina Sansoulier, alias Jennie Simpson, was charged with the larceny of a bracelet, pair of shoes, shirt waists, coat, sweater, underclothes and chain, all of the value of $34.50, the property of Lavina B. Potter. She entered a plea of not guilty, but at the request of the government the case was continued till Saturday.

Sent Back to Farm
Michael J. Reynolds, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm.

Violated City Ordinance
George A. Blake and Oscar F. Frensis were charged with violating a city ordinance by not having three bells attached to their sleighs or the harness of the horse drawing the sleigh. Blake was held up in Suffolk street and it was while Frensis was passing through Broadway that it was found there were no bells on the sleigh. Both men entered pleas of guilty and a fine of $1 was imposed in each case.

Supr. Welch Informed the court that he did not wish to press the cases, but brought the men into court in order to educate others what they should do. He stated that if a horse with no bells attached to the harness ran away the people in the street would not have sufficient warning to escape being run down.

THE CITY COUNCIL KILLED BY GAS

Both Branches to Meet Tonight

Both branches of the city council will meet tonight. The meeting of the aldermen will be an adjourned meeting, while the meeting of the common council is a special meeting. The aldermen are meeting tonight for the purpose of joint convention, but if the wisecracks at city hall are to be credited with anything like good political foresight, there will be no joint convention. The republicans in the lower board have two men to save the city clerk and the city treasurer, and they are not just ready to take the chance.

For Lower Telephone Rates
Councilman Henry Achin, Jr., at the special meeting of the common council tonight will introduce an order for lower telephone rates.

The order is as follows:
Order for appointment of joint special committee on telephone rates discount.

Ordered, if the board of aldermen concur. That a joint special committee consisting of two members of the common council, two members of the board of aldermen and his honor, the mayor, be appointed to confer with officials of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company relative to allowing Lowell telephone subscribers a reduction in rates or a certain discount for prompt payment, under the same plan as is in operation by the Lowell Gas Light company and Lowell Electric Light company.

THE BULL WILL
CAMBRIDGE, Feb. 23.—Judge McIntyre of the Middlesex probate court announced today that he would hear arguments on Feb. 25th on the question of appointing a special administrator for this state for the estate of Ole Bull, who left the greater portion of her property to certain societies and very little to her daughter.

The contest over the will is expected to take place at Saco, Me., as Mrs. Bull had a residence at Eliot, Me.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN PROVIDENCE

Medical Examiner Griffin pronounced death due to accidental asphyxiation. The woman is said to have been subject to fainting periods, and it is believed that she was stricken while trying to light the gas. She was married, but not living with her husband, who the police said was Edward Morgan, Lock street, Haverhill, Mass.

DISPOSED OF BY COURT AT DUNDALK

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—The election contest in the north division of Louth was disposed of today by the court at Dundalk which declared the election void and awarded Timothy Healy costs in his prosecution of charges of corrupt and illegal practices. The charge of general intimidation was found not to have been established and on this point each party was condemned to pay his own costs.

The action was brought by Mr. Healy, who was ousted from the seat which he had held for 18 years, by Richard Hazleton, a Redmonite, in the early stages Hazleton's attorneys consented to have the election declared void without offering a defense, but Healy insisted on introducing all of his evidence which included that in support of charges of bribery and the court decided to hear it. A new election will be necessary.

NO CHOICE FOR SENATOR
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 23.—There was no choice for United States senator on the 32nd joint ballot today. Sheehan received 66 votes, Dapow 60, Sheppard 55 and Littleton 5, with 73 necessary for election.

WATER TANK FOR KEITH THEATRE

THE TANK BEING UNLOADED AT THE THEATRE

A very large pressure tank which most people thought was a huge boiler was delivered in front of the Keith theatre on Bridge street this morning by the Stanley teamsters. It is a water tank to be used in connection with the sprinkler system that is being installed in the Keith theatre. It is 30 feet long and 7 feet 9 inches in diameter, its capacity being 6000 gallons. The tank itself weighs six tons and a half, and the water it will contain when filled will weigh 12 tons. The tank will be set in a corner 70 feet above the stage and will be supported by great metal columns. It will be hoisted to its place by Knights & Sons, and will be connected with a four-inch water main and automatic fire alarm gong, the object being to provide sufficient pressure to drench the stage in case of fire and to provide also sufficient water for the sprinkler system all over the theatre. The work of completing the interior is rapidly progressing and already it can be seen that when finished this theatre will be one of the prettiest in New England. Mr. William McKenny is general supervisor of the work for Mr. Keith and is an expert upon everything in theatrical construction.

GIRL A HEROINE

She Saved the Lives of Four Children

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—In a struggle with Robert Braun, in which a girl braved a magazine pistol and was beaten about the face until she was all but unconscious, the victim last night won the lives of four children. The unequal fight occurred in the parlor of the home of George Eichner on East Illinois street and Miss Emma Eichner, 18 years old, was the heroine. It began the moment Braun, who was nursing fabled wrongs against Eichner, knocked at the door early in the evening and asked to be admitted. "No, you'd better come around tomorrow," said the girl.

"I'm here now and I'm here to stay," exclaimed Braun, pulling the magazine pistol from his pocket and forcing his way into the hallway. Miss Eichner seized his arm and tried to push the intruder back. Together they struggled until, reaching the parlor door, Braun noticed the four children. Then he leveled his pistol at them and was about to fire.

But the girl released her grip on his other arm and with both hands forced the muzzle of the weapon towards the ceiling as Braun fired. Unable to bring the pistol into play, Braun beat the girl until blood flowed from half a dozen wounds in her face. But she stubbornly clung to him. Again and again he fired but to no purpose. Finally the gun clogged and while he was examining it Miss Eichner pushed him out of the front door and closed and locked it. Braun then rushed to the tailor shop of an acquaintance, Joseph Sturm, shot him in the shoulder and in the hand and went about to fire a third time when once more the gun clogged. He drew another weapon from his pocket but it missed fire. While examining it he shot one of his own fingers off. He then abandoned his attack, visited a doctor's office and was arrested while his injury was being treated.

Braun will be held in jail pending an examination into his mental condition.

BOWLING GAMES GEO. ROBERTSON

Some Lively Contests Not a Bargain Counter Driver

The game between the Druggists and the Frodoes in the Moody Bridge league series last night proved to be a close and exciting contest. The Druggists won two of the three points and captured the total by a margin of ten pins. Malloux of the winning team was high man.

The Frodoes had little or no trouble in putting it all over the El Toros in the game in the minor league last night. The Indians were in excellent condition and put up a great game despite the fact that one of the regular members of the team was missing. Fielding and Mahan of the winning aggregation went over the 300 mark.

There were two games played in the Manufacturers' league. The one between the Boot and Appleton teams proved to be a good one and also that luck as well as sense assisted the Boot team in holding on to the leadership in the league. Despite the fact that the Boot team lost the pinfall by nine pins it won two of the three points. In the game between the Bigelows and Hamiltons the latter team won all three points.

WOMEN VOTERS

HAVE WORKED A REVOLUTION IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 23.—For the second time in a month the votes of women have worked a revolution in Seattle. In Tuesday's primary election to choose 18 candidates for councilmen the women voters followed up their vote of February 7, which ousted Mayor Hiram C. Gill and his appointive officers, by defeating all but three candidates who were accused of being on intimate terms with the late Gill administration.

The proportion of women voting Tuesday, compared with the total registration was larger than that of men.

Bidding Up Of Minor Specialties Gave Market An Appearance of Strength Little Movement in the Leaders

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—With the exception of advances of 6 1/2 points in General Chem. and 1 1/2 in C. P. R. Tuesday's closing prices at the close of the stock market today after the holiday, Missouri Pacific was unchanged but other Gould stocks advanced fractionally. Amn. Beet Sugar gained 3/4, Virginia-Carolina Chem. lost 1/4 and 1,500 shares of Union Pacific sold at a decline of 1/4.

Selling orders increased after the opening and the market declined. Leading and U. P. lost a point, and other stocks a moderate fraction. A slight rally was not maintained, the market showing a yielding tendency again at 11 o'clock. Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh dropped 11 points. Amn. Beet Sugar improved a point.

Attempts to depress stocks during the morning session met with only temporary success. Bear traders took advantage of the fact that a decision in the freight rate cases was believed to be imminent to sell the market. Good buying at the lower prices which resulted caused a rally and by midday the list had made a full recovery. Wash. stocks and bonds were bought heavily, the preferred rising more than a point and the extension 4 1/2. Two points on reports that the road was to be taken over by another system. Can. Pac. increased its advance to 2 1/2.

Bonds were steady.

Can. Pac. received a point from its high level but otherwise the list was unaltered between 12 and 1 o'clock.

Speculators were disinclined to do much in the market pending the announcement of the inter-state commerce commission in the railroad rate cases which it was rumored would be given out at 3 o'clock.

The market closed firm. Concentrated bidding up of various minor specialties gave an appearance of strength and activity to the late trading, but there was scarcely any movement in the recognized market leaders.

AT STATE HOUSE

Hearing on Firearms Bill

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—A bill drafted by District Attorney Joseph Pelletier of Suffolk county and providing that dealers in firearms must be licensed and may sell firearms only to persons who have been given a license to purchase by the legislature, was heard today in the state house today. District Attorney Pelletier spoke for the bill, which was drafted by him following a double murder in the district attorney's office a few months ago. Others who supported the measure were former State Senator Bell of Dorchester and James D. Adams, a well known labor leader. Mr. Adams was severely wounded by an armed knave in the governor's office at the state house two or three years ago when President Cohen of the Massachusetts branch, American Federation of Labor, was killed.

Representatives Underhill and Hobbs and Joseph D. Adams who appeared for a sporting goods house opposed the bill. The opponents of the measure claimed that there was enough law on the statute books at the present time covering the matter, especially the laws relating to the carrying of concealed weapons. Rep. Underhill declared that 90 per cent. of the homicides were committed by persons who had the influence of liquor and he said that the best way to prevent or at least to curtail such crimes was to put an end to the practice of issuing liquor licenses.

LORIMER CASE KILLED HIMSELF

Time for Vote Not Fixed by Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Notwithstanding the feverish anxiety of many senators to dispatch business and the especial desire of Senator Lorimer's friends to get a vote on the question of the validity of his election, there was little prospect at the beginning of today's session of the senate that any marked progress would be made during the sitting.

Senator Burrows, who controls the case in the interest of the committee on privileges and elections and who is a staunch supporter of Senator Lorimer, stands ready to vote any time the senate will permit such action and it was his announced intention this morning to ask the senate during the day to fix a time for a vote.

The delay in the main is due on the one hand to the desire on the part of the Lorimer opponents to counteract the impression made by Mr. Lorimer's speech yesterday in his own behalf, and on the other to the determination to state of the necessity for the body here on a special train and by representatives of the state of Maine and of the state legislature.

The little church was crowded to the doors and banked with floral tributes. The late congressman's constituents had gathered from miles around. The body lay in state from 11 to 12:30 o'clock and was viewed by hundreds of friends and neighbors.

The services began with singing "The Homeland" by a Portland male quartet. Rev. C. W. Bradley, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church at Bath, was sung and the funeral march began.

The body was escorted to Evergreen cemetery, a short distance from the church and there placed in the receiving tomb to remain until spring, when it will be buried in the family lot.

There were no honorary pallbearers. The active bearers were intimate friends and neighbors.

The congressional delegation consisted of Senator Eugene V. Brown of Massachusetts, Representatives O'Connell of Massachusetts, Kendall of Ohio, Graham of Illinois, Guernsey of Maine and James P. Latta of Nebraska.

STATE STREET

FARE TO BE LENGTHENED

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—State street, long prominent in finance and history, is changing the name of this part of Court street which lies between Washington street and Cornhill. If the board of street commissioners and Court street business men have their way, the commissioners today voted in favor of the change, which will become effective, must have the approval of Mayor Fitzgerald.

The westerly end of State street has for hundreds of years been the Old state house. On this thoroughfare occurred the "Boston massacre," the first bloodshed between the citizens and the British troops during pre-revolutionary troubles. Court street is practically a continuation of State street but at Cornhill, Court street turns abruptly to the northward and then curves sharply westward to Bowdoin square. Under Court street business men maintain that a change of name would favor them.

Man Passed Away at Home of His Father

NARRAGANSETT, R. I., Feb. 23.—The sufferings and privations endured by Leroy C. Loughborough when he was left alone last March for eleven days, most of the time without food, water or fuel, on Green ledge light-house off South Norwalk, Conn., resulted in his death last night at the home of his father at Point Judith, where he had been ill all of the time since his rescue. He was 27 years old. His illness developed into tuberculosis which was the direct cause of death.

Loughborough, who was the assistant keeper of the light, was left alone when the keeper went ashore to buy provisions. The keeper failed to return and in a short time the scanty supplies of food and fuel were exhausted. For several days Loughborough waited suffering from hunger and exposure for some one to come to his rescue. After 11 days a revenue cutter coming to the lighthouse to investigate why the beacon was not burning found the assistant keeper, his life nearly spent, lying beside the lighting apparatus.

JAPANESE TREATY

Met With Strong Opposition in
the U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—An effort was made to crowd through the senate yesterday the new treaty with Japan on the subject of commerce and navigation, but it met with stubborn resistance from a wholly unexpected quarter. Senator Hale said that the treaty represented a voluntary surrender by the administration of a commercial advantage which this country by right should enjoy for another year over the nations of Europe with whom Japan is negotiating new commercial relations.

Senator Lodge, who reported the treaty from the senate committee on foreign relations which agreed to report it after its provisions had been explained by Secretary of State Knox, was unable to satisfy the objectors.

Considerable feeling was exhibited by Mr. Lodge in answering the Maine senator's criticisms. It had been expected that there might be some opposition from Pacific coast senators, because of the elimination from the new treaty of all reference to the immigration of laborers, as covered by the existing treaty of 1894, which the new convention is intended to supersede. The western senators, however, offered no arguments against ratification beyond demanding time in which to obtain an understanding of its provisions.

An executive session of the senate was convened shortly after 3 o'clock last night to consider the new treaty.

Several senators were immediately curious to know why there was such haste to have the treaty ratified. Although this reason was not stated, the general belief was that the administration desired action before western states had time to memorialize their representatives to oppose it should the elimination of the immigration clause be deemed obnoxious to the interests of the Pacific slope. Senator Lodge said that the administration desired prompt ratification as an additional proof of the cordiality of this government toward Japan.

The treaty might have slipped through had it not been for Mr. Hale. Mr. Lodge had made a speech asserting that there was no danger of objectionable immigration under the treaty, because that question would be taken care of by laws and police regulations. And for the additional reason that Japan through diplomatic channels had assured this government of her intention to exercise the most rigid control of passports. At this point, however, Mr. Hale interposed objections to ratification.

No fault was expressed by the Maine senator with the immigration feature, but he charged that it involved reciprocity with Japan, which was objectionable to orthodox protectionists as that contemplated in the reciprocity agreement with Canada.

On every side senators who had been disposed to accept without question the report of the committee on foreign relations pressed him for an explanation.

Attention was directed by Mr. Hale to the absence from the new treaty of the protocol of the treaty of 1894 in respect to the Japanese tariff to be applicable to the United States. Under that protocol the present statutory tariff with Japan would be continued until July 17, 1912, while, if the new treaty were approved, a new and higher tariff would go into effect at once.

Replying to this suggestion, Mr. Lodge said that treaties which Japan has with all countries other than the United States, expire within a very short time and that in negotiating new treaties that government has incorporated therein the "friendly nation" clause. He said further that Japan is about to undertake a new fiscal plan and to adopt a new general tariff law, but that she would be compelled to postpone her operation of these needed reforms for another year unless the United States showed its friendship by permitting the abrogation of the treaty with this country at the same time that treaties with other countries expired. He said that the effect of this refusal would be great loss of revenue to Japan, but of comparatively small benefit to the United States. Some sharp passages are said to have occurred between Messrs. Lodge and Hale, but the debates in executive sessions are never recorded.

After a long debate, it was realized that ratification yesterday was impossible, and the senate adjourned.

A radically different view of the Japanese treaty is held by those in the confidence of the state department who regard the position of Senator Hale as the result of a misapprehension. Three distinct benefits, they declare, will accrue to the United States by giving Japan the concessions desired in the way of a ratification of the proposed treaty by July 17 next and the omission of the immigration restriction from the treaty.

These advantages were enumerated as follows:

First—The United States will secure the perpetuation of the passport arrangement of 1907 through diplomatic notes, and therefore feels able to dispense with that stipulation in the treaty of 1894 regarding immigration which expressed a potential right that never was exercised. This stipulation, it was pointed out yesterday, will not impair the inherent and sovereign right of the United States to legislate on the subject of immigration should it so desire.

Second—The industrial and artistic as well as property rights of Americans will be protected.

The diplomatic exchange in recent years, covering the rights of American patents and copyrights, are embodied now in a treaty.

Third—The United States will continue to receive "favored nation treatment" in whatever revision of the tariff Japan may undertake in the future.

It was in respect to Senator Hale's views with regard to the tariff that supporters of the state department particularly took issue.

GREAT SUCCESS THE AMERICANS

Another Presentation of
"The Mikado"

"The Mikado," the comic opera presented by the pupils of the High school, was again given before a large audience last night in the school hall. The hall was packed to its seating capacity and the applause was frequent and hearty.

The performance received the heartiest praise from everybody present and the audience must have contained at least a hundred people from the towns that send their young people to the school. The ensemble was a real success, and it is possible that next year the pupils of the High school will give the Lowell people another operatic treat.

Musical was provided by a quartet composed of Messrs. Tetley, Waterhouse, Datenby and Billson, and altogether a most profitable and enjoyable evening was spent.

WILFRID LAURIER

Opposed to Annexation of Canada to the United States

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Hugh Guthrie, M. P. of Guelph, Ont., a member of the liberal party and a staunch supporter of the Laurier government, and James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, were the guests of honor last night at the Washington day celebration of the Elliott club. Both spoke on the pending reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada. Mr. Guthrie said that he spoke with the sanction and approval of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and added:

"I state plainly and positively that there is in Canada no sentiment in favor of annexation to the United States. I do not know of one single public man in Canada who harbors such a thought or would countenance such a suggestion. Any dream, any wish or desire on the part of the people or the press of the United States that any political change, however slight, may in the future result from the present proposals, so far as Canada is concerned, must be eliminated absolutely from the discussion. Otherwise the judgment of Canada in regard to the matter will be plain, unmistakable and unalterable and may be expressed in your own characteristic vernacular—not for ours."

"However great might be the advantage to Canada, from the adoption of this arrangement, Canada must and will refuse it if in the slightest degree it tends to nullify our allegiance, the trust and devotion which Canada today reposes in the imperial crown of Great Britain. I do not for a moment suggest that this commercial arrangement will or can have such an effect. I do not believe it will now or hereafter."

"We must deal with absolute frankness with each other in regard to this phase of the subject and the frank and candid manner in which the president of the United States and the secretary of state have expressed themselves during the past week has been greatly appreciated in Canada."

"And let me add," said Mr. Guthrie, weighing his words carefully, "by way of confirmation, that the language I have used and the sentiments I have expressed upon the question of annexation which some of your people and press have sought to drag into this discussion have the direct sanction and approval of the prime minister of Canada."

Secretary Wilson confined himself to a discussion of some of the benefits he believed would accrue to the people of both countries from the adoption of the agreement.

PROF. NASH

CRITICIZES MARRIAGE OF AMERICAN HEIRESSSES
PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 23.—American heiresesses who marry titled foreigners, the American quarters in foreign cities the game of football as played in this country, and politics, all came in for severe criticism at the hands of Prof. Henry S. Nash of the Episcopal theological seminary of Cambridge, Mass., during an address delivered at the annual meeting of the Maine Society of the Sons of the American Revolution yesterday.

The marriage of American girls to titled Europeans was characterized as "brutal barter and disgraceful to both sides" while American colonies abroad, the speaker declared to be "the most rotten in the world."

Football, Prof. Nash insisted, is dis-

honest. "Rule makers," he said, "get together in New York and formulate rules and then return to their colleges and teach how to violate them."

Groton schoolboys visit Harvard, he said, and study the game, then return as coaches and corrupt the game. "I have been filled with unutterable shame," he declared in discussing politics, "at the disgraceful things that have happened here and brought our country into disrepute across the water. The trouble is we have been absent minded. We have got to get together for clean politics. The birth of a new democracy is coming on every side."

THREE ARRESTS

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 23.—Three men have been arrested and more than $2000 in money and jewelry have been recovered as a result of the three days' search for the bandits who held up and robbed the Southern railway fast mail train at White Sulphur Springs last Saturday morning. The identity of the suspects still is unknown.

Following the capture of one of the robbers early Tuesday two other members of the gang were arrested yesterday.

Nearly $1000 in cash and jewelry valued at between $500 and $600 were found on them. When handcuffed the robbers broke down and admitted their participation in the hold-up.

TO MAKE HAIR CLEAN AND GLOSSY

(From the Toronto Times)
"Your hair will grow in beauty and color, and brilliance and luxuriance, if you will stop drenching and rinsing it with soap and water and use only a dry shampoo powder, sprinkled on the head once a week and brushed thoroughly through the hair."

"More dry, dull, brittle and faded hair can be traced to too much moisture than to any other cause. A good shampoo powder will remove every particle of dust, oil and dandruff from the head, leaving the scalp clean, cool and refreshed and the hair glossy, soft and silky."

"To make a shampoo powder simply mix four ounces of therox with four ounces of eris root. Therox tones up the hair from root to tip, and you need use no other tonic."

GARDNER TRIAL

Prosecutor Nott Expected to Take the Witness Stand

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—What promises to be the final day of the trial of Frank J. Gardner on a charge of attempted bribery opened with Assistant Attorney Nott ready to put the former state senator through the ordeal of a searching cross examination. Gardner, testifying in his own defense just before court adjourned Tuesday, emphatically denied that he had tried to bribe Congressman Otto Foelker, then a state senator, to vote against the anti-racetrack betting bill in 1908 or that he had told Assistant Dist. Atty. Elder of Brooklyn anything about racetrack legislation at Albany. It was Gardner's testimony before the Merritt commission of what he said Gardner told him about racetrack bill bribery that started that end of the bribery investigation and led eventually to Gardner's indictment.

Prosecutor Nott indicated that he would recall Mr. Elder today in rebuttal to relate his story of the $500,000 bribery fund, which he declares Gardner told him about.

Mr. Nott also was expected to take the stand himself to refute part of the testimony of one of the defense's witnesses.

Justice Seabury notified counsel that the case must go to the jury today. It was arranged to complete taking of testimony at the first session and devote the afternoon to summing up.

of the play, as a token of appreciation of the good work rendered by the amateur actors.

At 7:30 o'clock the guests sat down to a dainty banquet served by Caterer Edmond Berger, and the name of Berger is sufficient to know that the food was of extra quality and plentiful. Rev. Fr. Denizot presided over the festivities, and after the feast he delivered appropriate remarks, thanking the young men for their success, and stated that the proceeds of the soiree after all expenses were paid, amounted to $275. These remarks were received with great applause. Several of the guests also made remarks, and then all proceeded to the music room, where an enjoyable program was rendered, everyone present doing his share.

STRONG ATTACK

Made on the Japanese Government

TOKIO, Feb. 23.—The spread of an archaic doctrine in Japan was the basis of an attack on the government in the diet today. Members of the opposition introduced a resolution censuring the government for having permitted outlawry to reach a point where an attempt upon the life of the emperor had been planned. The resolution was defeated by a large majority. The debate revived the recent conspiracy which resulted in the execution of Denjiro Kotoh and his wife and ten other anarchists and the imprisonment of fourteen others. Premier Katsura outlined the efforts which were being made to prevent the growth of the movement.

THE FOURTH DEGREE

Knights of Columbus

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Hundreds of members of the fourth degree rank of the Knights of Columbus from all sections of New England assembled in Faneuil hall yesterday afternoon to witness the conferring of the degree, the highest in the order, on more than 250 candidates, the largest body that has ever gathered for that purpose in this city, with the exception of the first time it was given here, over 10 years ago.

At noon the district assembly, comprising representatives of various assemblies throughout the state, and the first ever to be held here, convened at the Boston City club. The meeting was called to order by Dr. Timothy Hanrahan, master of the degree for Massachusetts.

Nearly 500 members, he said, have been added in this state in the past six months.

One of the duties of the district assembly is to choose a committee to nominate three members, from which a master will be chosen by the supreme master. During this part of the business, Capt. D. J. Gorman, vice-supreme master for the province of New England, presided. James F. Gallagher of Newton, Michael J. Driscoll of South Boston and Owen C. Trahan of Malden were elected members of the committee to attend to this matter.

Charles E. Lyons of Boston, John H. Gordon of Jamaica Plain and Peter F. Hanley of Dorchester were chosen a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws. Rev. James J. McCarthy, state chaplain, made a short address of a congratulatory nature.

The degree work commenced about 3 o'clock in Faneuil hall.

The work was under the direction of Dr. Timothy Hanrahan, master, assisted by George H. Kelly, secretary; Rev. James J. McCarthy, chaplain; Capt. Daniel J. Murphy, marshal; Edward J. Brandon, D. P.; Christopher J. Fitzgerald, E. C.; Louis Watson, H. Arthur L. Gold, R. Patrick A. Kearns, N. Michael E. Fitzgerald, H. Augustus F. Caldwell, R. Michael F. Shaw, N. John S. Quinn, W. The music was furnished by a quartet comprising William B. Brooks, John Z. Kelley, John D. O'Connor and James J. Flynn, with Paul Donovan as organist.

Busy Men Keep ALLEOTONE in Their Office

ALLEOTONE is a concentrated liquid cell food composed of the very elements which compose the cells of your body. Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsilitis, Grippe and all sicknesses, due to lowered vitality caused by deficient cell material begin to yield to ALLEOTONE just as soon as the food which ALLEOTONE contains is conveyed by the blood to the places where it is required.

Sometimes the improper nourishment of your cells shows in other ways than colds or grippe. You feel "no good," your energy is gone, matters of moment demand attention, but you don't feel equal to them. In other words, you are not up to the normal. Since ALLEOTONE is a tonic absolutely without reactionary effect, it is especially beneficial during these periods of mental or physical exhaustion. Business men who have learned the value of ALLEOTONE in their homes, also keep it in their offices, as a tonic to take whenever their work is proving too exhausting.

This renewed vitality is not artificial, any more than the strength, which food brings to a starving man is artificial. The cells which are weakened by hunger for some necessary element of their composition is fed by ALLEOTONE, and quite naturally the feeling of lassitude passes away.

ALLEOTONE is absolutely harmless. You should keep it always on hand to cope with colds, feverishness and the feeling of being run down.

WASHINGTON'S DAY

Was Pretty Generally Observed in This City

Yesterday a grateful country observed the anniversary of the birth of its father, George Washington, the one man credited with never having told a lie, and the greatest hero from the moral, earnest and patriotic standpoint, ever born. Other countries have had their kings, but only one country had its George Washington and he was worth all the kings that ever happened.

The observation of the day was more or less general in Lowell, in churches, clubs and other places, but there was nothing in the way of observance that would be called elaborate.

The Elks Entertained
The hospitality of the Elks was never better demonstrated than it was last their commodious quarters in Middle street. There were about 400 present during the evening, whilst was enjoyed, there was an informal entertainment program carried out by local talent and players at the different theatres, refreshments were served and the affair proved to be a success in every particular.

The interior was beautifully as well as artistically decorated with the national colors, flags and greenery. The corridors were also decorated in an appropriate manner.

Whist was started shortly after 8 o'clock and continued till 10 o'clock, when the entertainment program was opened. Pretty souvenirs were presented to each of the participants in the whist while the winners received beautiful prizes.

The following were the prize winners: Ladies, first, Miss Lena Lampleneau, 64 points; second, Miss Ella M. Burt, 61 points; consolation, Mrs. E. F. Lamson, 14 points.
Gentlemen, first, Charles J. McMahon, 57 points; second, James Gushin, 51 points; consolation, D. J. Hackett, 19 points.

The entertainment program opened with a selection by Hathaway's orchestra, Prof. Arthur J. Martel, leader; Donald Meek of the "Donald Meek Stock Co. gave an excellent recitation of 'The Life Boat Crew' in his own inimitable way, and James E. Donnelly gave imitations of Harry Lauder. Edward F. Shea contributed songs and Severin De Deyn gave recitations and impressive feature of the occasion.

The success of the affair was due to the untiring and zealous work of the following committee of arrangements: Frank A. Mallory, chairman; Walter E. Guyette, secretary; John P. Farley, John H. Cull, Thomas A. Golden, Corneilus T. Collins, Andrew A. Corry, Samuel A. Pickering, Harry Pitts, Donald Meek, William W. Murphy, Joseph Mullin, Charles F. Young, Edward F. Hathaway, James E. Donnelly, Dr. T. F. Carroll, Arthur J. Martel, George W. Moon.

JOHN H. CULL,
Secretary

imitations. Songs were sung by John A. Keleher and Joseph H. Donohoe gave several readings.

At 11 o'clock the Elks' toast was given by Exalted Ruler John P. Farley. The toast was given with the lights turned low and proved to be a very every particular. Besides an informal musical and literary program there were numerous games for the young women.

The program included the following numbers:

Opening chorus, by the sodality, "Holy Mary"; reading, "An Inquiry," Miss Nellie Lynch; solo, "You'll Come Back to Erin Some Day," Miss Irene Harkins; reading, "George Washington Jones," Miss Ellen Mahan; solo, "Just a Piece in the Firelight," Miss Lucy Sharkey; reading, "Sister's Beau," Miss Katherine Komey.

St. John's Church

The Parish Aid society of St. John's church held a bag social in the parish rooms last night. The affair took the form of a Washington party, and the rooms were prettily decorated with flags and statuettes of the "Father of His Country." The ladies of the society appeared in colonial costumes. Every person who entered the rooms presented a bag, with coin of the realm in it. And each one gave as much as he saw fit to do.

The following miscellaneous program was given: Piano solo, Miss Jessie Regan; tableau, Roscoe Brannan and Dortha Whiteley; duet, "Dost Thou Love Me, Sister Ruth?" Edward Moore and Miss Wilson; song, "Culler Herin," Miss Helen Smith; duet, "Back and Jill," Robert and Alexina Burns; song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Charles Ingalls. The sketch, in costume, "How the Story Grew," was delightfully given by Mrs. Charles Ingalls, Mrs. Thomas Riley, Mrs. K. J. Connell, Mrs. H. L. Whiteley, Mrs. Joseph Wilde, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Edwards and Mrs. Fred Brannan. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunklee, Mrs. Pascal and Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. George Parsons, Mrs. Willis E. Holt, Mrs. Jessop and Mrs. W. E. Robbins poured.

The Boys' Brigade

The Boys' Brigade of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave a Washington birthday entertainment last night in the vestry of the church, which was attended by a good sized audience. Exhibition drills by squads of the brigade provided one of the pleasing features of the evening's program. The first squad was under the command of Capt. Herbert H. Taylor and three other squads under Corporal Ernest Hood, Carlos Tait and Raymond Fox, also did exceptionally good work. Songs by Master Emil Hartford, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss Eva Henderson, was an added feature, and an exhibition drill of a squad from Company G, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., under Sergeant Hotchkiss.

The members of the brigade presented a little sketch, entitled "An Awkward Squad." The characters and those who portrayed them were: "Felix, Mustard," Irving Snyder; "Sergeant Drill," William Mochrie; "Cyrus Greene of Jayville," Albert Booth; "Hans Anheuser Plisner Wurtzner-burger Hoffbrau, Jr.," Herbert Taylor; "Percy Harold Hooper Hooper," Rothwell Smith; "Michael J. O'Shaughnessy," Charles Barton; "Bolter," Frank Bacheller.

The playlet was well rendered and merited much applause.

Herbert Taylor is captain of the brigade, William Mochrie first lieutenant, and Irving Snyder second lieutenant. Sergeant Cornelius Barnes of G company, Ninth regiment, M. V. M., is drill master of the brigade.

The Washington Club

As usual the Washington club celebrated at its quarters on Prescott street last night by a banquet, followed by address by a number of speakers, including James J. Kerwin, John C. Burke, Daniel J. Donahue and Joseph Smith, all of whom dwelt upon the personal character, the civil and military achievements of Washington. The set address of the evening was by Mr. Smith, who dwelt at length upon the career of Washington and the difficulties he had to overcome. The rooms were appropriately decorated, and the exercises, enlivened by the music of the Middlesex orchestra.

The People's Club

A large audience gathered at the People's club rooms in the Runels building last night. Selon W. Stevens gave the address, taking George Washington as his topic.

Mr. Stevens delivered a most scholarly and entertaining address. He indicated the steps in the life of Washington, spoke of his military genius and dwelt enthusiastically upon his career as a statesman.

Patriotic songs were sung by Mrs. C. M. Williams, who delighted her audience. Mr. Stevens played her accompaniments.

A Delightful Affair

At least 150 people attended the annual social held last night in the Sacred Heart school hall, under the auspices of the Holy Angels sodality of that parish.

The affair proved even more enjoyable than those of other years, and the evening was a delightful one in every particular. Besides an informal musical and literary program there were numerous games for the young women.

The program included the following numbers:

Opening chorus, by the sodality, "Holy Mary"; reading, "An Inquiry," Miss Nellie Lynch; solo, "You'll Come Back to Erin Some Day," Miss Irene Harkins; reading, "George Washington Jones," Miss Ellen Mahan; solo, "Just a Piece in the Firelight," Miss Lucy Sharkey; reading, "Sister's Beau," Miss Katherine Komey.

A GREAT TIME

ENJOYED BY THE EMPLOYEES OF FRIEND BROTHERS

The employees of the Friend Brothers from Lynn and Lowell with their wives and lady friends were the guests of the Melrose employees at the Melrose city hall last night. Two special cars conveyed the party from Lowell.

Motormen Leahy and Hayes with Conductor Fanning and Sanger, had charge of the cars. The car trips both ways were enjoyed by all as could be seen by the enthusiastic merry making. A continuous lunch was served. Whist, dancing, checkers and entertainment consisting of instrumental and vocal solos were enjoyed.

The hit of the evening was the chorus sung by the Lowell men.

COL. ROOSEVELT

Is Able to Handle Intruders

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's facility in handling intruders and his presence of mind in emergencies were put to the test twice yesterday at the big meeting in the First Regiment armory, and in each instance he availed with the dexterity that brought applause from his audience what at first looked like embarrassing situations.

In his address at this meeting which was designed primarily as a word of counsel for the foreign born citizens of Chicago, the former president took occasion incidentally to announce himself as an advocate of woman suffrage. This perhaps was in compliance to Miss Jane Adams, who sat beside him on the rostrum, but the language the colonel used was unequivocal.

Personally, he declared, "I am in favor of giving the franchise to all citizens, irrespective of sex."

The adventure with the stranger came just as he closed his address on "Good Citizenship."

Colonel Roosevelt had taken his seat and A. A. McCormick, who presided, had just arisen to make an announcement, when a queer looking individual, with a flowing beard, arose from one of the front seats and walked upon the platform where the speakers were seated.

"Are you the colonel?" he demanded, extending his hand and reaching for Colonel Roosevelt.

"I'm an old soldier from Wisconsin. Just stop the program for a minute, will you? I want to say a word or two to this audience."

Colonel Roosevelt looked the man over for a second and then, declining that he was harmless, smiled.

"No, no," he said, "not now. Just sit down here a minute," and he made room for the intruder beside him.

The man took the seat offered him. Mr. McCormick made his announcement and the audience sang a verse of a patriotic song. Then, while the audience was sitting down, the colonel got the stranger quietly off the platform.

The other incident occurred while he was in the middle of his address. He had just begun the sentence, "We must stand up boldly," when the chair on which one of the reporters was seated suddenly collapsed under him. The audience burst into a roar of laughter, in which Colonel Roosevelt joined.

After the reporter had readjusted himself, the colonel observed and renewed laughter.

"I said stand up boldly, and not sit down," and went on with his talk.

HERE'S A SHAMPOO

WORTH TRYING

"Much depends on what you use when shampooing," says Mrs. Mary in the Los Angeles Times. "Great injury is often done the hair and scalp by employing harmful mixtures for this purpose, while a simple thing, like canthrox almost works wonders in cleansing the hair and scalp."

"After a canthrox shampoo the scalp is soft and pliant and the hair will have regained its original lustre and smoothness and is easier to do up."

"Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water and shampoo the head well with this, then rinse thoroughly and dry. You will be agreeably surprised at the result."

"While canthrox is not expensive, you should be careful to get an original package."

TRAIN HARNESS

HORSES ON ICE.

Canadians Work Trotters and Pacers
From Time Snow Falls.

Those trainers of trotters and pacers who find difficulty in getting their charges ready for the early meetings of the grand circuit, which never opens until June is almost over, should go to Canada during the winter months and take a leaf from the experience book of their fellow horse-men of the north.

From the time the snow comes their trotters and pacers are kept at work, and by Christmas, when the ice racing season begins they are ready to go as many heats as are necessary to get the money. When the snow and ice disappear in the early spring the horses have a short letup, but the moment the half mile tracks are fit to drive on the work of preparation for the spring, summer and autumn campaign is resumed, the meetings on a majority of the tracks being scheduled to open on May 24, known throughout Canada as Victoria day.

Does the Horse No Harm.

The fashionable trainers who find it necessary to spend the winter months at Memphis, Tenn.; Macon, Ga. or in California would probably be afraid to subject their pets to the supposed rigors of the Canadian climate, but the trainers of the northwest say that the cold, bracing atmosphere and the short, sharp work on the snow or ice are beneficial to the horses reared there and point to The Earl, General H. and other star performers as proof that the argument is sound. There is one thing certain, when the grand circuit opens the horses from all parts of Canada are as fit as those nurtured in the south and often fitter.

For ice trotting the horses are, of course, so shod that there is little chance for a mishap. There are calkins of razor edge sharpness to hold the horse firmly on the snow or ice, and these begot confidence to an unusual degree. They are placed one at the toe crosswise and one on either flange, running lengthwise at the heel. As the trotter or pacer marches over the frozen surface of the road or track these cut with a sharply defined "cheep, cheep," at each step, and the sound of a bunch of horses racing is inspiring.

Purses Make It Worth While.

The ice meetings arranged throughout Canada have sufficient money added to make it worth while training and racing a good horse. The purses and stakes at Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, are especially substantial, and the Americans who have crossed the border expecting easy game have invariably been surprised at the caliber of the horses. At Ottawa the course is on the Ottawa river, and thousands of enthusiasts crowd the inclosure. Speculation is unrestricted, and many thousands of dollars change hands during the meeting. At Montreal and some other points the horses race over a half mile course which has been especially prepared. The surface is scraped until a bed of ice or hard snow is secured, and this in turn is sprayed and sprinkled until the desired footing is obtained. Comfortable quarters with every accommodation for man and beast are always provided, and the horses are rubbed dry in stalls where the temperature is about the same as would prevail in the open in June. Naturally great care is taken that none of them catches cold, and the drivers are in their seats before the doors are opened.

Scoring Is Very Brief.

There is no nonsense once the horses are out upon the track, as all are anxious to get away. The scoring, therefore, is not tedious. When the horses appear a bell rings, and those who have been buying pools or patronizing the refreshment booth come trooping through the doors and take their positions in the cheerless grand stand. They are warmly clad, many of them wearing coats of beaver or raccoon fur, with here and there a man who wants to be unusual and whose coat is of seal. Some of them are begirt with multicolored sashes, and this touch of picturesque recalls the early days of the voyager whose scarf was his pride. The drivers are wrapped snugly as the spectators, and zero weather has apparently no terrors for anybody connected with the sport.

FREAK ATHLETES WILL FIGURE IN COMING MEETINGS

FROM BASEBALL

TO THE OPERA.

By TOMMY CLARK.

MUTILATED athletes are on the warpath. In fact, they have been for some time, and it fortune permits they will figure in coming meets this season. Recently Basilio Fero, the well known one legged runner of North Bay, Canada, challenged any one legged runner in Ontario or Canada to a race from five to ten miles, with a side bet who had lost his leg most recently, because it was considered that the other had an advantage in being more accustomed to running on one leg. The major won.

The challenge also calls to mind the number of men who have achieved prominence in the athletic world despite serious disqualifications. It disposes of the old idea that to be successful an athlete must have the perfect body. For instance, there is Albert Sutton, the armless billiardist. He has appeared all over the country and has played the best of the two armed champions on even terms and has only had to yield to men in the front rank. Sutton has been playing for many years, and yet he has only two stumps, both arms being off above the elbow.

The day also is not far distant when Philadelphia has a crack one armed pitcher in Sam Griffith. Sam lost his left arm many years ago, yet with the right alone he has been able to earn an excellent living. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Americans, thought enough of Griffith to give him a trial some years ago, but he was not quite fast enough for big league company.

England has a high class one legged cricketer, Lunt of the Knotty Ash Cricket club, who is good enough to hold his place against the competition of athletes who have all the parts with which nature endows mankind.

When playing he is usually assigned to keep the wicket. With a crutch under one shoulder he supports himself without apparent discomfort, and once he gets his hands on the ball it is a sure catch. He is really remarkably agile in the duties of the position and stumps many a batsman by his speed.

E. H. Adams, New York Athletic club, is a name that frequently figures in the swimming records. Adams has won so many events in competition with club members that now he is called on to represent the N. Y. A. C. in matches with other organizations. Adams is a cripple. Some hip trouble shortened his left leg, and he walks with a decided limp, but otherwise he is a notable specimen of manhood.

Season before last Chicago university had a one armed guard in the football team, and he was so good that no opponent dared take any liberties with him. On the Pacific coast there is a one legged tennis player who more than holds his own with some of the cracks.

Philadelphia has a crack one armed pitcher in Sam Griffith. Sam lost his left arm many years ago, yet with the right alone he has been able to earn an excellent living. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Americans, thought enough of Griffith to give him a trial some years ago, but he was not quite fast enough for big league company.

Albert Sutton, Armless Billiard Player.

of from $100 to $200. No one accepted the bet yet, but he may be taken up shortly.

The above challenge will remind veteran sportsmen of a one legged race that took place years ago in Ottawa between a Major Strutt and a gentleman named Jarvis.

Crutches were admissible according to the agreement of this race, but artificial legs were barred.

There was a handicap for the man fect body. For instance, there is Albert Sutton, the armless billiardist.

He has appeared all over the country and has played the best of the two armed champions on even terms and has only had to yield to men in the front rank. Sutton has been playing for many years, and yet he has only two stumps, both arms being off above the elbow.

The day also is not far distant when Philadelphia has a crack one armed pitcher in Sam Griffith. Sam lost his left arm many years ago, yet with the right alone he has been able to earn an excellent living. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Americans, thought enough of Griffith to give him a trial some years ago, but he was not quite fast enough for big league company.

There was a handicap for the man

John Haskings, One Armed Golfer.

Sammy Strang Has Cereus Craze and Is Studying in Paris.

Can any one imagine Sammy Strang Nicklin, the man who took care of the second sack at Oriole park last season, hitting 300 or better in a squad of seasoned chippers like Caruso? Well, that's just what the once famous ball player intends doing next season. Sam, who has always been conceded to be one of the best voted players that ever sang a lullaby to an umpire, has been stung by the singing bug, and the lure of the Wagner stuff has got the best of him.

Sam is going behind the footlights next year as one of the tribe that every time it lets out a wall has a breeze from the Canary Islands sounding like the clatter of tin pans. It's goodbye to the diamond this season and every other season for Sammy Strang. Sammy at the present time is far away from the town in which he was to have played during the coming summer months, which, by the way, was Montgomery, Ala.

Sam just now is over in Paris, where some of the fighters are now headed, studying up the best way to hit high C without whiffing out every time he steps to the pan. In the letter announcing his intention to forsake the plaudits of the fans and seek recompense in a more artistic atmosphere Strang-Nicklin drives home the fact that his voice has been plowed and cross harrowed and is now in the cultivation stage of development. With scientific irrigation and a diet of throat lozenges he hopes for an engagement in a minor league opera company before he is much older.

In due time he expects to chirp 347 in fast company. If he fails we may hear him in vedee, advertised as the "sweet voiced minstrel" who has the nerve to sing his own compositions—a la Doc White.

The advent of Strang-Nicklin in opera brings to mind some of the players who have achieved distinction after quitting the diamond. Prominent are Governor John Tener of Pennsylvania, one of the round the world baseball tourists; John M. Ward, the New York attorney; A. G. Spalding, head of the house of Spalding; Mike Donlin, who married Mabel Hite and made good as an actor; Garland Stahl, the Chicago banker; Fiedler Jones, the Oregon lumber baron, and many others who acquired a competence in baseball and used it to advantage in business or professional life.

The number of wealthy men in baseball today would surprise many 12 names and fortunes could be secured. For instance, Frank Chance with his California orange groves, Hens Warner with his steel plant, Fred Clarke with his ranch, Roger Bresnahan with his commercial interests, Napoleon Lajoie with his farm home and fat bank account, Cy Young with his big farm, are all rated as men of wealth. And there are many others who have saved their money and invested it to advantage.

RUNS MARATHON FOR SIDE OF BACON.

Demara, the Greek, Surprises Alaska Camp by Ability to Run Grueling Race. Now Challenges World.

"Will you run a marathon race for a side of bacon?" asked a miner at Fairbanks, Alaska, of a little Greek who had been working in the camp for some months. Evidently the miner thought that all Greeks were natural born marathoners. At that time bacon was mighty precious stuff in the far north, even more valuable than were gum drops.

Nick Demara declared he was a marathoner, and within a few minutes he started out to run the twenty-six miles. That was the first bacon that Demara brought home, but when the miners saw that they had a distance runner in the camp they sent "outsiders" and brought in a couple of "pro" runners. Against them Nick proved a winner in every race, and in a short time he was possessed of a small fortune.

There was a lap in Fairbanks who could run a bit when the occasion demanded, and he was matched to run against the Greek. Nick defeated him by a few miles and then decided to come "down below" and get some races with the best we have here. By the time he had reached the decision that he was a world beater the winter had set in, and there were no boats leaving from the camp in which he was located. Naturally there was nothing for Nick to do but "hoof" it out. To Valdez was 360 miles over the soft snow, but Demara made it in record time.

He arrived in New York, looking for the chance to run against the best in the world. "I've gone the marathon distance on a track twenty-four laps to the mile in 2 hours 51 minutes," said Demara.

THE STAR COURSE

Prof. Steiner's Lecture "On the Trail of the Immigrant"

Professor Edward Alfred Steiner of Grinnell college, Iowa, a student and traveler, was the speaker in the Star course lecture under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association at the First Congregational church in Merrimack street last night. Prof. Steiner's subject was "On the Trail of the Immigrant."

The speaker's opening was a rather humorous one and his remarks met with the approval of his listeners. He referred to the common belief that our ideals—all that we have achieved—have been the result of the more than the economic motive, and then added that the man who believes that there are other forces at work in human society is called either a fool or a liar and when summarizing our idea of him we call him a crank. He said: "I am sure you can say that there are large movements in our history which have been the result of idealistic conceptions or motives. Our forefathers came to this country because they had ideals which they wanted to realize. If they were seeking anything, they were seeking for a city where a maker and builder was God. But, you say, this miracle of assimilation has taken place because the alien groups who came here were related one with another. They were of the same race, or of the same language, or at least, they had common ideas."

"We speak of the new immigrant as the new problem, and say that no such assimilation is possible again. They are of different races and blood. I suppose there are 57 varieties of color of language spoken here in Lowell. You say, we have nothing in common; they have their own ideas about the church, the state and the home."

"I share all of your apprehensions. It is well to be on one's guard. A fan optimism is just as bad as a false pessimism. But it is certainly true that the immigrant of today, who comes to Lowell, is not an economic problem. Eighty-six per cent of those who came over in ten years, were between the ages of 14 and 41; an age to do the work which our civilization requires. Three thousand landed in New York in one day, and they all went to work. If they had been 3000 university graduates, what would you have done with them? On the work which these immigrants do is fundamental and essential. I have some respect for my own calling, yet I am positive of this: that if tomorrow all the college professors in creation would strike, it would not make much difference to creation. But let the pickers and the shovel rest for 24 hours, and there will be something doing; or rather, there will not be anything doing."

"Another of the problems mentioned is that these men are going back with their hoarded wealth—with the money that they are withdrawing from the United States. I went abroad for six months to study that subject. I traveled steadily because I am especially fond of that variety of human beings whom we call 'elks.' On shipboard, the first cabin passengers were going over with American money to foreign countries, and those countries would spend the money to build navies and equip armies. I found out that a thousand of the steepest passengers were carrying over $25,000, while a small group of Americans—about 12—carried over more than $100,000. The important difference is that the people in the steepest earned their money, and I am not so sure about the rest of us."

Another phase of this economic problem is the question of standards of living. You have here, as in other places, groups of men living together, without their families. Take any group of men here—20 in all—let them go off alone, and after a while you could not tell them from those 'daggers,' as you call them. When a man brings his wife and three children here, these people live here under absolutely different conditions. Agricultural people, who have lived in the open, are crowded into your cities. Moreover, the homes into which they are put necessarily are in crowded quarters, and do not lend themselves very well to cleanliness. But you must have noticed that the standards of living rise with the years that these people stay here. They get so Americanized that they live up to their incomes, and often a little beyond, and in a year or so they are going to buy automobiles and mortgage their homes."

"But a problem that presses much harder is the ethical problem. Shall we be able to assimilate these people, and, if so, is it desirable? What will become of this type which we call the New England, or American type? Two things are helping us to solve this problem. The first is the people coming to us now are ignorant, of a low social grade. They come from small, broken countries, where national feeling is not very strong, and when they come into this great country the first thing they want to do is to blend with this larger group. You never really assimilate an Englishman until he is dead and buried in your cemetery, and then he cannot help himself. He has back of him Great Britain and Great Britain is bigger than the United States. But the man whose world and whose life the sun touched the village pasture, bring the face to face with skyscrapers and your great institutions, and he wants to melt himself like brass before the fire."

"Another thing that helps us is the same great environment that has moulded the Yankee temperament. It does not mean to say that there is no serious ethical problem here, in the mixture of races. But I do mean to say that in spite of themselves the American type is creating itself upon these people. In a few years, if they have

Speaking of the politeness of a group of Italians, and the prejudice shown against them by their American fellow travelers, the professor said that the breads of these people were clean, and their breaths did not smell of strong drink. They smelled of garlic, but garlic is innocent. No man ever committed murder under the influence of garlic.

"When you measure these people, measure them as you measure yourselves? By whom do you measure statesmanship? George Washington. Human ideals? Abraham Lincoln. Have not these people, too, men of that type who rose upon their political horizon? It is true that the people who come to this land are not cultured. If they were cultured, they would not do our dirty work. But they are capable of taking the very best that we have got. Are we willing to convey to them the best that we have got?"

"The danger is not that these immigrants at your door will do what we do in politics. The danger is that they are going to do exactly the same things. We cannot lay it to the charge of these immigrants that they have corrupted Springfield, Ill., and dozens of other places, for there are no foreigners there."

"Every one of the children in your home is a problem. Every stranger that comes to your city full grown is a problem. I am not trying to take away your apprehension. I am trying to take away your prejudice. I am pleading with you, that you will try to keep this country free and to make it noble."
